of the rolling collar, which has a center seam. Square-cornered pocket-laps cover openings to side pockets in the fronts. The modish two-seam sleeves are gathered and stand out in puff style at the top.

Broadcloth, serge, tweed, cheviot and novelty suiting with a finish of machine-stitching will appropriately develop this jacket.

We have pattern No. 8935 in nine sizes for ladies from thirty to forty-six inches, bust measure. For a lady of medium size, the jacket requires three yards and threefourths of goods twenty-seven inches wide, or three yards and five-eighths thirty inches wide, or three yards and an eighth thirty-six inches wide, or two yards and a fourth forty-four inches wide, or two yards fifty-four inche, wide. Price of pattern, 18, 3d, or 30 cents.

LADILS DOUBL S-BREASTED EMPIRE BOX JACKES, THAT MAY BE SLASHED OR PLAIN AT THE BACK.

(For Illustrations see Page 297.)

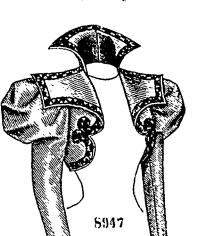

No. 8938.-Anotier view of this jacket is given at figure D 15.

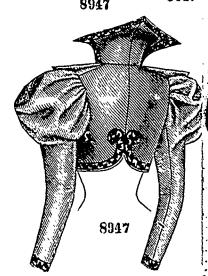

Cloth and velvet were here chosen for the jacket, which is in Empire box style. Its loose, seamless back, which may be plain or slashed, is connected with the loose, double-breasted fronts in shoulder and under-arm seams, and a double-breasted closing is made with buttonholes and fancy buttons.

FIGURE NO. 152 W .- This illustrates Ladies' Military on Hussan BASQUE.-The pattern is No. 8959, price 1s, or 25 cents, (For Description see Page 201.)

Above the closing the fronts are reversed in lapels that extend in points beyond the ends of the rolling coat-col-lar. The one-seam sleeves are gathered at the top and

8947

Front View.

Back View.

LADIES BOLERO JACKET. (TO BE MADE WITH OR WITHOUT SLEEVES.) (For Description see Page 200.)

stand out in fashionable puff style: they are finished wi upturned flaring cuffs. Machine-stitching provides the configuration w finish for the edges of the jacket.

Smooth-finished cloth, such as broadcloth, kersey, etc., rough-finished two-toned boucle material in green, brown, binity-t and red effects, with velvet for the collar and cuffs, will deve medium this mode stylishly.

We have pattern No. 8938 in seven sizes for ladies filbree y thirty to forty-two inches, bust measure. For a lady of meditarce-fe size, the jacket requires a yard and three-fourths of cloth inforty-fe four inches wide, and half a yard of velvet twenty include. wide. Of one material, it needs three yards and three-eighighths twenty-seven inches wide, or two yards and a half thirty frills ca inches wide, or two yards and an eighth forty-four inches wit fourth or a yard and three-fourths fifty-four inches wide. Price pr 80 c pattern, 1s. or 25 cents.

LADIES BASQUE, WITH TWO UNDER-ARM GORES. (Del-ADIE) ABLE FOR STOUT LADIES.)

(For Illustrations see Page 238.)

No. 8966.—For stout ladies this basque is particularly deable. It is pictured made of shaded brown taffeta, with lace car for the frills and jabot. To insure a perfectly turn adjusted No. 8 the basque is provided with a lining that is accurately fitted that have been by alorad like the basque of the same the same of th closed like the basque at the center of the front. Two until mann gores at each side separate the full fronts from the seam! This back, which is smooth at the top and has fulness collected at type. w bottom in backward-turning, overlapping plaits that are tachpilled for a short distance and flare upward. The full fronts are exhibited as the neck and shoulder edges and are laid in closed custapped plaits at the bottom, the plaits being stitched for a shoulder distance and then flaring into the fulness above. The gather one-scam sleeves are arranged overcost changed living such as the same arranged over cost changed l one-seam siceves are arranged over coat-shaped linings and stages a one-seam sieeves are arranged over coat-shaped hungs and start out in short puffs at the top, the adjustment below the public is being comfortably close. At the neck is a standing collar of froi cred with a wrinkled ribbon that is arranged in three outstands are loops at the back; a soft twist of ribbon follows the lower of the start of the being comfortably close. At the included in three outstands ered with a wrinkled ribbon that is arranged in three outstands leer stoops at the back; a soft twist of ribbon follows the lower of the basque and is bowed at the center of the back. At the twint the follows the close of the back at the center of the back. At the twint the follows the bust and the upper edge of each frible followed by a soft, wrinkled ribbon that is carried a pretty the control of the back, the back end of the yok.

of emb ards a

ADII