

currency, upon conviction before any of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace.

XXV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Chairman of the Board of Trade, and Board of Examiners together, to increase or diminish the tariff of fees and charges for culling and measuring established by this Act, in such manner as to meet and defray as nearly as possible, the expense of the Supervisor's Office, and the payment of the Cullers, in the Ports of Quebec and Montreal respectively, employed by and under his authority, according with the true intent and meaning of this Act.

The Governor &c. may alter the tariff of fees, so as to make the receipts cover the expenses as nearly as possible.

XXVI.—And be it enacted, That in the event of the departure from the Province, or the declared or known insufficiency, or the death of any of the sureties of the Supervisor or Cullers respectively, it shall be the duty of each respectively, immediately to procure other sufficient sureties, and to enter into bonds as provided for in this Act, or their appointment or commissions shall become null and void.

New sureties to be found by Supervisor and Cullers in certain cases.

XXVII.—And be it enacted, That all the penalties, fines, and forfeitures by this Act imposed, shall be sued for (except where otherwise provided for) either in term time, before any of Her Majesty's superior Courts of Record, or before any other competent Court for the District wherein any of the offences herein before mentioned shall have been committed, or in vacation before any of the Justices of the said Court, in a Fines, penalties &c. imposed by this Act, how recoverable.