

RARE RUGS AT LOWERED PRICES

Our collection of Oriental Rugs has become one of the principal sections of our carpet department. We have been unusually fortunate in securing a mammoth supply of rugs this fall and have made some very special values to bring them to your notice.

Each rug in the groups named below is an individual creation, different from every other as a snowflake is different from every other flake. The human touch enters into the proposition and hence these rugs are worthy of careful study.

The Prices Named Are Exceptional

Some of them are a half lower than their usual prices, others a quarter less, every one means a large saving on a rug you will always enjoy.

These Special Rugs are Reserved for Courier Readers. Ask To See Them.
