Brunswickan Chooses New Editor

by David McGaw

At 10 pm Sunday, January 24, twenty-three Brunswickan staffers met to elect a new editor and advertising manager for the year February 1971 to February 1972.

The meeting was chaired by retiring Editor David Jonah. Three applicants were considered for the position of advertising manager - Mike Roberts, a second year Arts student; Gordon Willett, a third year Bus. student; and John Scott Stewart, a first year Arts student. Gordon Willett the present co-advertising manager, was elected. Gary Constantine, Business Manager, will train the new advertising manager in the business aspects of the paper.

Three applications were submitted for the position of Editor and a fourth was nominated from the floor.

Faye Cameron, a postgrad philosophy student suggested in her letter of application that "the time is right for the student media to become a responsible source of reflection and awareness" and urged that the Brunswickan accept responsibility for creating academic reform.

Jim Simons, formerly sports editor and news editor hoped to maintain the present staff and improve Campus News coverage.

Blues Roberts, editor of the Inside section of the Brunswickan, pointed to his creative writing and editorial writing experience.

Barbara Boyd who had had professional experience working for the Woodstock Bugle was nominated from the floor.

Before the vote, retiring Editor Dave Jonah asserted that the Brunswickan has a solid, technical base and is limited only by the staffs aspirations. He cited campus news coverage as the paper's main weakness.

The views of the two candidates in attendance, Mr. Simons and Mr. Roberts, were enlarged on by a question and answer period.

Roberts obtained a two-thirds majority vote on the fourth ballot.

SRC Awards $500 Salaries to two Brunswickan Staff

by Edison Stewart

The UNB Students Representative Council tossed aside the recommendation of its Administrative Board (Chairman-Comptroller Jim Muir) to lower 2 Brunswickan honorarias and decided instead to award the Production Manager Linda Beaton and Managing Editor Peter Collum of the Brunswickan each $500 salary. (for the year 1970-71)

The Administrative Board had recommended that (1) the SRC lower the honorarias of the two to $250 each for one year and (2) that the SRC restructure its honoraria system UNB-SRC President Stephen MacFarland proposed that the two from the Brunswickan be given salaries of $500 each instead of honorarias, and that the SRC restructure its honoraria system.

The director of Radio UNB, Kevin Dicks, had made application to the AB for seven new honorarias for the station. Four were for $175 each, and three were for $100 each. Comptroller Jim Muir noted that this would bring the Honorarias of RUNB "precisely in line with the $1000 increase for the Brunswickan".

Muir proposed that the three $100 honorarias for RUNB be cut, and the four $175 honorarias be lowered to $100. Further, he said, "the two Brunswickan honorarias should be lowered to $250 each."

Muir was concerned that the $5,100 of SRC money that was being spent on honorarias this year was "several times the amount of honorarias of universities of a comparable size." He noted that since the last AB meeting, he had received "application for ten honorarias. Where is it going to end?" he questioned.

Muir went on at length to discuss both the pros and cons of giving the two Brunswickan staff $500 honorarias. David Jonah, editor of the Brunswickan, asked for a point of order. He wished to plead his own case, not have Muir do it for him. The Council allowed Muir to continue.

Jonah had little to say when he was allowed to speak to the Council "The Brunswickan was a total, complete, utter abject failure last year," he said. "I didn't want the job,
