

20. Conclusions:

- (a) The simplest and best procedure is by indictment, conviction, and vacancy under section 31. If, however, there is any difficulty in establishing technical perjury, a different procedure should be followed. ✓
- (b) Impeachment and trial by the Senate are not available without constitutional amendment. ✓
- (c) The power of the Senate to expel can, it is submitted, be resorted to. There will certainly be a bitter contest as to the existence of the power. ✓
- (d) The procedure should be:
 - 1st. Senator X. brings the Report to the attention of the Senate and it appears that Senator Y. has done this and that.
 - 2nd. The Senate orders the attendance of Senator Y. to enable the Senate to consider the charges.
 - 3rd. Under Canadian practice the matter is referred to a committee for investigation and report.
 - 4th. Assuming report of committee, Senate should consider entire case and expel.
