

1587

Cross Examination: I talked to the soldier I stopped in a friendly tone of voice. I didnt tear his shirt with intent. There were no blows struck outside the dance hall.

The evidence is read over to the witness.

Address by Defending officer on First Charge hit.

Address by Prosecutor on First Charge. Review evidence.

There was a fight & the accused was in it.

The Court is closed to consider the findings on the first charge.

The finding of the Court is recorded in Part 1 of the Schedule.

The Court states to the accused that the finding being subject to confirmation will be promulgated later.

The prosecutor makes opening address on 2nd Charge. First witness for the prosecution on the second Charge.

W 66325 G Cpt. Davidson R. 1st Co Para Reg. am. states: On Aug 19 1943 at about 11:30 P.M. I was coming through Balford Camp with Plt Lee, the accused, Parthen, Parley and another soldier I dont know. They saw a soldier coming along the street. Lee said lets start a mock fight.