GOOD PAVEMENT

Chairman Marshall, of the Finance committee, was trying the new pavement on Queen St. to-day. A portion of the pavement wouldn't roll down level and it had to be taken up. So Mr. Marshall, when he came along, decided to try it. He swung the pickaxe firmly and strongly, but the pavement refused to yield to the force of his mighty blows. It was hard and firm like stone, although only laid this morning.

The groom, Mr. David Beecroft, of the Chicago Times, who is well and favorably known here, was attended by Mr. Will Coltart, of Chatham, Mr. Atkinson and Mr. Percy Stacey, both of this city, acted as ushers.—St. Thomas Times.

The contracting parties are well known in Chatham. Mrs. Beecroft has frequently visited at Judge Houston's, this city.

Fashionable
DressmakingANNIVERSARY SALE
SIX DAY CELEBRATION.

Eight years ago on the 24th of October we opened our doors to the public in Chatham. All observing citizens will admit that while the city has made wonderful strides in that time in almost every way that leads to its betterment—granolithic walks, paved streets, municipal control of water and light, new industries, and enlarging old industries, improved appearance of all the business fronts on King Street, etc., yet comparing them all, this store can justly claim to have kept pace with the best of them. Eight years ago we occupied 1,820 sq. ft. of floor space, to-day our area is 14,160 sq. ft., almost eight times greater. Then our staff numbered seven, to day we employ fifty-five regularly, besides additional help Saturdays. Do you agree with us that we should celebrate?

The above record is a good one, but we do not intend to remain passive, we intend the business to keep on growing, and the only way we know of doing it is by continually seeking to improve the general store service and keep ng up the high standard we have established for selling the highest qualities at the lowest possible prices.

We want to make Anniversary Week a Record-Breaker.
We want more business than in any previous week.
