

THE QUEBEC TRANSCRIPT.

REVIEW OF THE NEW YORK MARKETS FOR THREE DAYS PRECEDING Wednesday, 10th July 1839.

Ades—Holders of Pots generally require $5 and the transactions have in consequence been quite limited since our last, at $4.87 1/2 a $5, though the latter rate was obtained only for superior parcels. For Pearls also, a further considerable advance on that notice in our last is now demanded, and the sales therefore have been only to a very trifling extent, unworthy special notice.

Flour—There has been no variation in the market requiring special notice for any description of either Western or Southern; the transactions, which are yet with only a few occasional exceptions confined to parcels as necessary for immediate domestic use, comprise common brands of Western canal at $6, 25, with some also at $6, 12 1/2; good fancy do. $6, 50; Ohio via canal $6 1/2 to $6, 12 1/2; and Georgetown $6, 12 1/2 to $6, 17 1/2; the common descriptions of Southern may be quoted at $6.

Provisions—With respect to the demand generally, there has been no change of importance. Beef also continues as before unnoticed in price. Pork we quote $18.25 for Mess, as referring, however, to Western alone, and Prime $14 to $15.50, including all descriptions. Lard also is yet comprised within 11 1/2 to 13 cents for both western and northern. Hams range from 12 to 13 cents, the same as previously quoted. In the remaining articles there is nothing which requires notice at present.

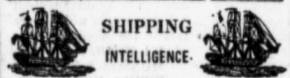

Exchange—On the date of our last, the rate on England rose to $4.87 a $4.88 (9 1/2 to 10 per cent. prem.) the pound sterling; this was, however, owing to the circumstance of the withdrawal of the United States Bank, as their supply of bills had become exhausted, by which the business was thrown into private hands. On France the closing rates were, 1/5, 1/2, to 1/5, 15. For the London packet, which leaves to-day, there was nothing worthy of notice done. The United States Bank intends, we understand, furnishing bills on England for the packet of the 13th inst.
