"Premiums to Every Subscriber!"

Has recently been announced as a new feature for

"HOOSIER NATURALIST."

We also notice several other "new features," among which is a Geological Department, for 1887, conducted by W. R. Lighter, and judging from the January H. N. his papers will be of unusual interest to all geologically inclined.

The publishers have prepared an "Illustrated Premium List," which they propose to mail free to all applicants. A single number of Hoosier Naturalist can be obtained for seven one cent stamps, by addressing the publishers, Messrs.

R. B. TROUSLOT & CO.,
39 COLLEGE AVENUE,
VALPARAISO, INDIANA.

[If We would advise everyone to send for the "Illustrated Premium List" at once.—EDITOR.]

PRINTER'S INK IS KING.

There is a host of men who boast Of powder, cotton, steam; But every hour the mighty power Of printer's ink is seen. It moves the world as easily As does some mighty thing, And men proclaim in despot's ears That printer's ink is king.

The man of gold, of wealth untold Printer's ink may scorn, Or knit his brow, nor deign to bow To one so lowly born; But printer's ink has built its throne Where minds their tributes bring, And God's most gifted intellects Shout "Printer's ink is king!"

King of the world of thought refined No object slave it claims: Where superstition's victims pine, It burns their servile chains. In every clime, in coming years, Will men proud anthems sing, And round the world the echoes float, That printer's ink is king! —Southern Publisher and Printer.

"GIRLS."

THE SMALL BOY'S COMPOSITION UNEARTHED BY MARK TWAIN.

GIRLS are very stuck up and dignified in their manner and behavior. They think more of dress than anything, and like to play with dolls and rags. They cry if they see a cow in a far distance, and are afraid of guns. They stay at home all the time and go to church every Sunday. They are al-ways sick. They are al-ways funny and making fun of boy's hands, and they say how dirty. They can't play marbles. I pity them, poor things. They make fun of boys and turn round and love them. I don't believe they ever killed a cat or anything. They look out every nite and say, "Oh, ain't the moon lovely!" This is one thing I have not told and that is they al-ways nor their lessons bettern boys.—Times Siftings.

"SHE fondly kissed him under the stars," writes a Newport novelist, "and he passionately kissed her back!" The V-shaped cut of dresses admits of such oculation, it is true; but think of the powder—lah!

"ALL flesh is grass," an ancient truth, By which it will be seen, That in the spring-time of our youth, We are so jolly green."
