

DEVOTION TO OUR LADY

ARCHCONFRATERNITY OF OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP AND ST. ALPHONSUS

The Devotion to Our Lady of Perpetual Help grew so rapidly after the miraculous picture had been set up for public veneration in the Church of St. Alphonsus, Rome, that, yielding to the wishes of the faithful, a Confraternity was established on the 4th of June, 1871.

Almost from its inception the Confraternity, like the devotion to the miraculous picture, spread with marvelous rapidity. The early zeal of the faithful foreshadowed the future. So extended had the membership in the Confraternity grown by the year 1876 that Pope Pius IX. saw fit to erect it into an Archconfraternity. His Holiness expressed the wish at the same time, that his own name be set down at the head of the list of enrolled members.

AIM OF THE CONFRATERNITY

- The aim of the Confraternity is:
1. To serve and honor the Queen of Heaven under the title of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, and to try to get others to do likewise.
 2. To secure for one's self and for others the grace of final perseverance.
 3. To have recourse to Our Lady of Perpetual Help in all spiritual necessities, especially in moments of temptation and suffering.
 4. To fly to Our Lady of Perpetual Help also in temporal difficulties, appealing to her motherly heart with all confidence.

MEMBERSHIP

- To become a member of the Archconfraternity it is necessary:
1. To be registered as a member in a church where the Confraternity is canonically erected.
 2. To make the act of consecration to Our Lady of Perpetual Help and St. Alphonsus. This may be done privately.
 3. Persons at a distance may be enrolled as members when they apply for admission by mail.
 4. Members are recommended to wear a medal of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.
 5. Members should always have in their homes a blessed picture of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.
 6. None of the practices of piety recommended oblige under pain of sin.

ADVANTAGES OF THE CONFRATERNITY

1. The members are assured of the constant protection of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.
2. Through this devotion the members are endowed with an influence almost miraculous, for the softening and converting of obstinate sinners.
3. The members share in the public devotions and other good works of the entire Archconfraternity.
4. Finally, by the expressed will of the Superior-General of the Redemptorist Fathers, the members have a special share in the fruits and merits of the missions, the pious exercises, the apostolic labors, the prayers, the penances and all other good works without exception which are performed by the entire Congregation of the Redemptorist Fathers.

PLENARY INDULGENCES

1. On the day of enrollment.
2. At the hour of death.
3. On the feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, or one of the seven following days.

Other plenary and partial indulgences to be gained by members may be found in the booklet containing a sketch of the miraculous picture and the Archconfraternity of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and St. Alphonsus. The booklet may be procured at St. Patrick's Rectory.

The Archconfraternity will be established in St. Patrick's Church during the Solemn Novena to be held July 13-23, 1924. Special benefactors who contribute the sum of five dollars ($5) will receive:

- (1.) A certificate of membership.

(2.) A medal of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and St. Alphonsus.

(3.) A large picture of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

(4.) The booklet mentioned above.

(5.) They will also share specially in all the prayers and good works of the Archconfraternity and the Redemptorist Fathers.

(6.) And the Solemn High Mass to be offered annually on the feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

On the second Sunday of each month, at 7.30 p. m., special devotions are held in St. Patrick's Church in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Wednesday afternoon at 8.30 o'clock similar devotions will be conducted. The sick and infirm, and mothers with infant children, are exhorted to attend these afternoon devotions. A special blessing will be imparted and the miraculous image presented for veneration.

Address all communications to Rev. FATHER RECTOR, St. Patrick's Rectory, 141 McCaul St., Toronto, Ont.

CANADIAN WESTINGHOUSE

ARMSTRONG PATENTS PROTECTED IN CANADA

"Considerable interest has been aroused in radio circles over a report that a recent U. S. Court of Appeals decision has been unfavorable to Major Armstrong, inventor of the famous regenerative circuit. This decision—which is being appealed by the Westinghouse Company of Pittsburgh—concerns only the issuing of a second patent in addition to the one already held and sustained against the De Forest Telephone and Telegraph Company. In Canada this question has already been settled by the granting of two patents—No. 216,321 corresponding to U. S. Patent No. 1,119,149 and another, No. 216,322, fully covering the question still under dispute in the United States. Both the Canadian Patents are owned by the Canadian Westinghouse Co."

No nation can maintain its respect for God merely as a matter of tradition, said His Eminence. Unless it is founded on knowledge, tradition will serve to maintain it only a short time.

"We may take two countries as notable examples of this—Italy and Ireland. We know how many millions of people from both these countries have lost the faith when they have gone to other countries, because their faith was based on tradition and not on knowledge."

"From countries where the tradition of faith is strong they passed into countries—especially North and South America—where that tradition does not exist, and in too many cases they, and still more frequently their children, ceased to be Catholics."

The Cardinal delivered an attack upon rationalism, which he described as "the most deadly insult that can be offered to the Creator, because it thrusts Him outside His own creation and places the finite creature in a position to judge and to condemn His Infinite Creator."

Without giving a literal translation of the canons, Father Papi presents to the reader the enactments contained in each, adding a word of explanation where needed, especially in the case of the laws which are open to different interpretations. To facilitate the study and the understanding of the canons, he has grouped them under 114 headings, or articles, arranged in alphabetical order. A glance at the list of these articles may give some idea of the variety and completeness of the subjects treated in this work. The author of the Preface, Mgr. Bernardini, Professor of Canon Law at the Catholic University, writes that each of these articles contains "a short, practical, and, as far as the scope of the work permits, complete exposition of the ecclesiastical law in that particular field." Thus, for example, the article on "Superiors" treats of their various classes, their powers, their appointment, and their obligations. Their articles on "Religious Vocations" and those on "Poverty," "Chastity" and "Obedience" include four short, but comprehensive treatises on these important subjects relating to religious life.

At the end of the work there is an index of all the canons treated in the book, with appropriate references to article and paragraph in which each canon is explained or illustrated.

With these publications of this work, Father Papi has established himself as an authority on the religious life; for his two preceding books, "Religious Profession" and "Government of Religious Communities," contain other invaluable data on this same subject.
