HE happiest man in the world is he who lives to make of life insurance. A paid-up Policy may be all that is left.

If you lack a sufficient amount, in these changed conditions of life, now is the right time to secure more, with The Continental Life. Our Twenty-Payment Life Policy-one of the most popular of many policies, provides: that all premiums shall cease in twenty years; that dividends will be paid during the twenty years, and afterwards; that such monthly payments will not be deducted from the policy at your death; that after three years or more you may take a paid-for policy, not requiring further premiums; that the policy cannot lapse while a sufficient cash value exists to pay at least one year's premium; that the policy is indisputable after two years; that you may reside or travel in any part of the world, or engage in any occupation." Don't delay, but others happy. This fixed law may involve "selfsacrifice," but what married man, especially, calls a service sacrificial that brings happiness to his loved ones? It is a privilege, as well as a duty, to provide a continuous income for his own, who will probably live after him-to support his wife and keep the children clothed and at school, to give them a fair start in life. This can only be accomplished by securing a clear-deeded estate, which is possible only by means

BOOKS!

The Religion of the Church

As Presented in the Church of England. A Manual of Membership. By Charles Gore, D.D., Bishop of Oxford. Paper. Net 50 cents. Postage 6 cents.

A Student's Week of Prayer

By B. M. Knox, Principal of Havergal College, Toronto. A series of prayers for private use, primarily intended for students, but highly commendable for old and young. They are simple, and practical in style, deeply devotional, and true in spirit to the teaching of God's Holy Word. Plain edition, each 5 cents. Art Covers, each 10 cents.

A History of England

By C. R. L. Fletcher and Rudyard Kipling 250 Pages, 11 Coloured Plates, Poems, Drawings and Maps. Cloth Binding. Net 50 cents. Postage 8 cents.
