SOLD LIQUOR TO AN INDIAN

Another Colored Man May Come Up On This Charge Shortly

Circus Jag Costs One Man
$5—The Police
Court

A circus jag yesterday cost Joseph Lewis $1 and the costs, $5 in all, in Police Court this morning. Lewis was very penitent when he woke up in the cells this morning. He had the usual morning after reflections, and he told the police he is never going to touch red-eye any more. Lewis comes from Moraviantown.

Another colored man is likely to figure in the Police Court shortly on the charge of selling liquor to an Indian. It seems as though no amount of warning is sufficient to stop this offence. Two men were recently given heavy sentences for this misdemeanor, but the examples made do not seem to have had the desired effect.

Fred. Lacells, an Indian from Moraviantown, was picked up on the streets in a drunken condition yesterday. All that could be gotten out of him in the sweat-box this morning, was that a very dark colored man sold him the booze. He was sent back to the cells, where a bread and water diet may help to brighten his memory.

The horse belonging to Mr. Nelson, which was supposed to have been stolen from St. Joseph's church stable, was found wandering around one of the country roads. It is thought that the animal broke out of the stable itself.

"In order to convict fast auto drivers it is not necessary for the informant to lay the information," said Chief of Police Holmes this morning. "All that is necessary for them to do, is to give the number of the auto or the name of the driver. They should also give the name of another witness."

Man wanted to drive and take off of grey delivery team. Apply to Wm. Gray & Son.

FITS YOUR CASE EXACTLY.

THE LOCATION OF THE SUMMER SCHOOLS

(Special to The Planet.)

Toronto, June 19. — After careful deliberation, the government has decided upon the location of the Summer Schools which will be established to give instruction to the teachers of Roman Catholic Schools. It was with considerable difficulty that the department was able to arrive at conclusions, as there were only a limited number of schools to be established, and the district to be selected was very large.

It has been decided to establish the schools at Ottawa, Peterboro, Toronto, Hamilton, Berlin and London. Chatham made a strong bid for one of these schools, but it was felt that the Maple City would not prove as central a point for the western district as would London.

In reference to the subject of Summer Schools, information concerning which is contained in the above dispatch, Mr. J. W. Plewes, of this city, has received word that he has been appointed instructor for the school to be held in the Toronto University. The term will be from July 3 to August 3. He has been informed that the course of study will be sent to him in a few days. The position carries with it an enviable salary for the summer months, and Mr. Plewes is to be congratulated upon being worthy of an appointment to such a responsible position in such an important point. This city should feel proud in the possession of an educationist who is held in such high respect and esteem among the leading men of the country.

ROPES FOR PARK

Chathamites have witnessed with a great deal of pleasure, the revival of baseball in the Maple City. The two games on Saturday were well attended, and this sport promises to be very popular in the city this summer. Judging from the spirit of the first two games, a good exhibition of this popular game may be expected throughout the season. One thing the management should do at once is to provide better facilities for enjoying the play, by making arrangements to keep the crowds back from the diamond. It has been suggested that ropes be secured to be stretched around the trees, to keep the crowd out. If this were done, it would add greatly to the pleasure of those spectators who wish to enjoy the game from a respectable distance.

BLUE RIBBON MEET

Canada will have a formidable representative in the first heat of the opening race when the Blue Ribbon meeting of the Detroit Driving Club begins on July 22. The place of honor as the inaugural event is given to the Horseman stake of $3,000 for 2.14 trotters, and to-day there is no candidate for this held in higher regard than Quintell, 2.11 1-4. This trotter won many cents on the half mile track of Ohio last year and then changed ownership, passing to the stable of Havers H. James, of Hamilton, the best reinsman in Ontario. Mr. James moved his horses to Cleveland where they are well advanced in work, and he thinks that Quintell will be a prominent factor in the race in which he starts. The Chamber of Commerce $5,000 pace is the same afternoon, and the famous $10,000 M. & M. trot will be on July

SWALLOWS DIAMOND IN FRIGHT

Was Moistening It In His Mouth When Moose Scared Him.

Montreal, June 19.—A man named Charles Cochrane arrived by C.P.R. at the Windsor station from Kippewa district. He appeared to be suffering acute agony, but refused all medical assistance, saying that he could find no relief until he arrived at his journey's end.

Cochrane is a diamond expert, and went north with two others to the district north of Kippewa, diamond prospecting.

Cochrane was moistening a large stone with his lips, in order to bring out its brilliant when, he says, he looked up and saw an immense moose standing within a few feet of him.

In his sudden fright he swallowed the stone and started to run for his life.

He is now hurrying to New York to be operated upon.

CROWDS VISIT THE BIG SHOW

Forepaugh and Sells Street
Parade Is Viewed By Thousands

Menagerie and Performances under tents were Magnificent

William Shakespeare is the gentleman who is credited with first saying that the circus is the thing. To judge by the tremendous interest it still awakes in this the twentieth century, William might have gone one better, and, without fear of contradiction, remarked that it is everything. At least on the day of its arrival it is about all the populace appear to have time to think about or talk about. It has come and it has gone again, and the small boy can once more apply himself to his books and his lessons in a much less disinterested fashion. School teachers will tell you, and they will be corroborated by parents, that it is a good thing that circuses do not come every day.

Ideal, real old-fashioned circus weather marked the triumphant coming of yesterday's event, and Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Enormous Shows United evidently left this city richer than they came. Crowds poured into the city from outside places all morning, and the main streets of the city for a time previous to and during the parade were black with surging humanity, and well nigh impassable. The big street procession of the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Show is strictly modern, and many of the old time features have been passed up. The parade, however, was much above the average, and was well up to popular expectations in every way. Tremendous crowds visited the shows out at the grounds both afternoon and evening, and nearly every seat in the big amphitheatre was filled on both occasions, and to judge by the opinions expressed afterwards everyone was greatly pleased with the performances.

The stellar attraction of the show is, of course, the somersaulting automobile, and its frail lady occupant, which are plunged down a steep incline, hurried in again into space, do complete laps in the air, and eventually alight safely on a pile of mattresses conveniently placed on a spring platform. The young woman is strapped in the car, and hoisted high on the apparatus, which has been blazoned in lurid colors on the bill-boards. She awaits the word to start.

"Are you ready?"
"Ready."
"Whizz-z-z-z!"

Ten thousand eyes are strained as the car shoots down the steep incline.

"Whirr-r-r!"
The car is in the air now, with the wheels whirling around in space.

"Bang!"
It is all over. The car with its living freight has turned a complete somersault in the air, and has finally alighted safely on the mattresses. The spectators breathe easy once more.

The circus opens with a spectacular feature known as "Lighting the Flames." This depicts a lively street scene to the fore of a big hotel. The hotel eventually catches fire, and the fire brigade rush to the rescue. The scenes which follow are thrilling and laughable by turns.

The three large rings in the big tent were enlivened by continuous performances from the opening to the finish. Space will not permit of a detailed criticism, but it is safe to say that all the routine performances were creditable and pleased the large audiences.

The menagerie is one of the most complete that has ever been shown in this city, and several very rare animals were shown.

A threatening thunder storm in the evening was the cause of a great number leaving before the show was over.

BIG BOA CONSTRICTOR DIES AT THE CIRCUS

One of the big boa constrictors, which form a portion of the sides shows with the Forepaugh and Sells Circus, died under the tent yesterday. The monster, a very valuable one, died, it is said, from stomach trouble.

The circus people made a present of the pelt of the big serpent to Provincial Detective Greer, who is accompanying the circus in its tour through the province.

ORDINATION SERVICE

The ordination of Mr. W. E. Matthews, B. A., the new pastor of the William St. Baptist Church, will take place Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Representatives from the churches in this district will be present, together with Rev. Prof. Keirstead, of McMaster University, Rev. J. J. Rose, and A. M. Walker, B. A., of London, and others. The proceedings promise to be of an interesting character, and will be public.

PRESENTATION TO MRS. GEO. B. CRUMB

A special meeting of the Ladies Aid of St. Andrew's church was held Monday afternoon at 3.30. It was reported at the meeting that the excursion on the City of Chatham was a success in every particular, and over $62 was realized, clear profit, besides providing an excellent outing for the children.

When the business of the meeting was concluded, the President, Mrs. W. A. Hadley, called upon Mrs. Trotter and Mrs. Manson Campbell to come forward and officiate at a very pleasant presentation. Mrs. Crumb, who is leaving the city, was also called upon and made the recipient of the following token of regard: Mrs. G. B. Crumb.

Assistant Secretary Ladies Aid: Dear Mrs. Crumb,—The Ladies Aid Society of St. Andrew's church, having learned that you are leaving the city to reside in Niagara Falls, cannot let you depart without expressing to you the sincere regret we feel that you are going away, and the hope that God will prosper you in your new home. Your going is a distinct loss to the Society and the church, where you have worked for the good of both, so faithfully and so long, as a member and officer, and it is our hope that you will be spared many years to continue the work in the new home you are going to, and you will be able to afterwards visit us, or return to our Society. We feel that you should carry with you some token of the affection and esteem we feel for you, and we would ask you to accept this candelabra, with our best wishes for the future happiness of yourself and family, and may God bless and keep you.

Signed on behalf of the Ladies Aid: MRS. W. A. HADLEY, President.

MRS. TROTTER,
MRS. MANSON CAMPBELL.
