The oysters are opened in Baltimore, put in a large box in their own juice, ice s placed in a saperate ecompartment, they are then sealed and come direct to us. They are SOLID OY-STERS—no water or ice has ever touched them since being ever touched them since being taken out of their shells in Baltimore. In this way they retain their flavor and are much super-ior to the ordinary oysters we are accustomed to here.

Furs are increasingly and deservedly popular as articles of dress. Some of the best fur-producing countries are unsettled, and the hunters' catch hindered or neglected, causing an advance in the price of raw furs, which we were sure would occur. To secure to our customers the very best of values, and equal or even lower prices than former years, we have secured the agency for this section of The Celebrated Beaver Brand Furs.

In the face of a steady advance in the price of furs, we want to show you what a saving you can accomplish by purchasing at The Gordon Store.

HANDSOME NEW

October as usual has brought forth a variety of cloal and suit styles—different of course from those shown earlier of these later productions. We received several shipments this week, these shipments embrace an assortment which is broad, which reaches a big total in many instances. However, there is but a single garment of a kind. Our cloak and suit department, you know aims for style exclusiveness, this exclusiveness is quite noticeable in almost every garment we show. We're proud of the style, character which compels visitors to say—"Well in The New York Cloak Store things are different to the control of the style of the control of the style of the control of the style of the same of the control of the style of the ent." A coats a coat and a suits a suit of course, but our offerings bear the hall mark of the anstocracy of fashion, the price is not a bit higher than quality and style. Call Smart new suits $8.50 to $35.00.
