

Subscribe to The Canning Acadian

The Canning Acadian

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF CANNING AND VICINITY

Advertise in The Canning Acadian

ROYAL YEAST CAKES

Make Wonderful Home Made Bread

Standard of Quality for over 50 Years

CANNING AND VICINITY

Mrs. Joseph Harris entertained the Modern Priscilla Art Club Wednesday evening, Feb. 11th, a large number attending and enjoying a delightful hour.

Mrs. Spurr Woodworth was the hostess at the meeting of the Arts and Crafts Club held Monday evening, Feb. 10th.

Rev. Dr. Hodgson returned last week from Yarmouth accompanied by Mrs. Hodgson, who is improving, after a successful operation performed in New York.

Mrs. David Webster has returned from Canning hospital, where she underwent an operation on her throat.

Mrs. Hardy Vaughan, who is a patient at Canning Hospital, is improving.

L. S. Macoun, Ottawa, is on a business trip to Canning, and is a guest at the Waverley.

The Junior class of '26, of Acadia University, held a sleighing and skating party on the evening of Feb. 10, driving from Wolfville to Canning, the number consisting of about 40 young people.

The class engaged Canning Citizens' Band, which rendered very excellent music in Canning rink under the direction of Professor Gordon.

This party was chaperoned by Mrs. A. B. Balcom and Mrs. Ross, who were accompanied by their husbands, Professor Balcom and Professor Ross.

Having previously been invited to the home of Mrs. A. M. Covert, mother of Miss Lou Covert, a member of the class, the party gathered at Mrs. Covert's residence at the conclusion of skating, where refreshments were served and games and music enjoyed.

These young people declaring that they had spent one of the best times ever.

Mr. Noble, on behalf of the class, moved a vote of thanks to the hostess, who responded gracefully.

Friends of Mrs. Covert, namely, Mrs. Starr Eaton, Mrs. A. A. Ward, Mrs. Charles Cox, Mrs. Victor Eaton, Miss Bertha Northup, who assisted in serving supper, added much to the pleasure of the guests.

The evening closed by the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

Mr. Jack Bigelow, of Acadia, who has been ill, has recovered.

Mr. Horace Grant has accepted a position with Mr. F. W. Robinson, Kentville, entering upon his duties last week.

T. Purser, amateur poultry raiser of Canning, in the month of January, from a pen of 20 White Leghorn pullets obtained 320 eggs, an average of 16 eggs per hen.

W. B. Burbidge, Leo Lyons and T. T. Chipman have been appointed assessors for the Canning Water District for 1925. The assessment is to be completed about March 1st.

Rev. W. G. Heisler and Mrs. Heisler entertained the Debt Destroying League of United Baptist church on Tuesday, Feb. 10th, a delightful afternoon being spent, and at the conclusion of the business hour the cup that cheers was served.

The Basketry Club was entertained by Mrs. A. A. Ward last week.

Mrs. Stoever, four children and niece arrived Feb. 11 from Toronto to visit Mrs. Stoever's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schaffheitlin. Mr. Stoever will arrive later, and in April, accompanied by Mrs. Stoever and family, will sail for Germany where Mr. Stoever has accepted a position. They will be accompanied by their niece, who has spent two years in Canada.

For Baby's Bath

More than that of any other member of the family, baby's tender, delicate skin needs the greatest care and attention. The soft soothing oils in Baby's Own Soap make it especially suitable for babies, and its clinging fragrance reminds one of the roses of France which help to inspire it.

A telegram was received Feb. 12 by R. W. North, conveying news of the death of Mary E. Percy, widow of the late David A. Percy, formerly of Canning. Mrs. Percy, who had been in ill health for several months, passed away at the home of her son, Mr. George Blenkhorne, Boston. Mrs. Percy was twice married, her first husband being James Blenkhorne, of Cumberland County. Those left are two sons, George Blenkhorne, Boston, and John S. Percy, of Dorchester, Mass.

The Mission Circle of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Lorne F. Blenkhorne last week. Miss Florence Cook, president, in the chair. Readings by Mrs. Blenkhorne and Miss Erna Goldsmith were followed by selections on the victrola.

Mr. Jacob Cohen has returned from Halifax.

Mrs. A. D. Payzant entertained a few friends at the tea hour Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. M. Beckwith, a delightful afternoon being spent.

Mr. Bronson Taylor, Medford, underwent a successful operation for appendicitis at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, and is improving.

MASONS HOLD ANNUAL CHURCH SERVICE

Scotia Lodge, No. 28 A.F. and A.M., held their annual church service on Sunday morning, Feb. 15, gathering in the lodge rooms and marching to the Methodist church, where the service was conducted by Worshipful Master, Dr. Thomas W. Hodgson. The choir rendered special music, which added much to the beautiful service.

Violin solos by Miss Kathleen Rand were greatly enjoyed. The church was filled with a large and representative audience.

The service opened by the singing of "Jesus, Lover of My Soul", followed by prayer and the reading of Psalm 96. The pastor chose for the scripture lesson 1 Cor. 3: and 1 Kings 7: "Ye are God's Building"; and "The Building of the Temple by Solomon".

I need not remind you, said the speaker, what the temple was to the children of Israel—the centre of their national life. When the house was finished, it became the embodiment of their national spirit, the embodiment of the affections and energies of the people.

It was symbolic of the recognition of the divine in human life. Where there is no recognition of God there are arrogance and false pride, but where the recognition of God comes there is a safeguard of national life.

In the building of this house there was a threefold process: (1) The stone an inert mass in the quarries was brought out. (2) By being brought out it was given an entity of its own. (3) In the process of preparation the rough stone was prepared in shapeliness for use.

It was submitted to the power of the hammer, and was ready for removal. Then came the wonder of it all. It was thought wrong that instruments be used to place it—these were intruders on that which was God-consecrated.

When the stone was removed to its proper place, it slipped slowly and quietly into the spot designed for it. The Apostle makes constant use of imagery in Solomon's temple. "Ye are the temple of the Most High." Thus to individuals was imagery used, Christ the foundation and builder, and we the living stones for some greater destiny in the edifice God is building.

In the preparation of the stone Solomon used somewhat the same steps as God uses in the building of His church. God extracted from the dead mass, called men from the fishing boats and separated them from the world. In the preparation we find these men like ourselves, impulsive, intolerant. What does the master do with these characters? He draws them near to Him, polishing the rough spots that lie on the souls of men.

That power, which is singleness of heart, must reign. That is the quarry scene. Then comes the scene of removal, as Christ works in the hearts of men. The plotting of the Herodians rising in antagonism till Christ was carried away and crucified. Then the clamor and turmoil ceased, and here in the Upper Room the spirit of God came upon them and each man moved in his own place and took their places as living stones in Christ's temple. This represents the last stage in the building, and it has been at work in the history of the world ever since.

We can find in Solomon's temple building the symbol of that God divine in the building of His church. The church is a spiritual house not made with hands. It is of living stones. There is not one of us to whom God does not reach out loving hands. He has a place for each of us. Some will say "It matters not what I think or do." Though the busy world may not care what you do or think, one there is who does care. God wants to fashion you to become a member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

CANADIAN ADVISORY OFFICER

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

Why does God allow such things? God says "In the world you shall have tribulation." But after all what do you desire? To be made a real support for His temple? Then think of the divine architect and submit. Are you satisfied with your character? Is it fit for His temple? Pray God that He may search you and lead you in the way everlasting, and that He may apply the chisel to fit you for some useful place in His temple. Then there is the silent putting in its place. All debris is left behind and you are brought into the sacred precincts. Is not the discipline worth while, that you may reach that perfection, that Christ-likeness, that enables you to find the place you are fitted for and that is fitted for you. I sometimes wonder if lack of faith does not prevent us from finding our place in God's great plan. Where He has put us in our place, helping Him in helping others, and living in loving fellowship with them. We find the complete life in realizing that we are one of many made ready for Him. So the structure grows. We are being prepared to slip into our place where we shall finally reach the maturity of perfection and work for Him. Living stones chiseled and ready for the Master's service! God grant that each and all of us may thus be made fit for the Master's use.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

Why does God allow such things? God says "In the world you shall have tribulation." But after all what do you desire? To be made a real support for His temple? Then think of the divine architect and submit. Are you satisfied with your character? Is it fit for His temple? Pray God that He may search you and lead you in the way everlasting, and that He may apply the chisel to fit you for some useful place in His temple. Then there is the silent putting in its place. All debris is left behind and you are brought into the sacred precincts. Is not the discipline worth while, that you may reach that perfection, that Christ-likeness, that enables you to find the place you are fitted for and that is fitted for you. I sometimes wonder if lack of faith does not prevent us from finding our place in God's great plan. Where He has put us in our place, helping Him in helping others, and living in loving fellowship with them. We find the complete life in realizing that we are one of many made ready for Him. So the structure grows. We are being prepared to slip into our place where we shall finally reach the maturity of perfection and work for Him. Living stones chiseled and ready for the Master's service! God grant that each and all of us may thus be made fit for the Master's use.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

Why does God allow such things? God says "In the world you shall have tribulation." But after all what do you desire? To be made a real support for His temple? Then think of the divine architect and submit. Are you satisfied with your character? Is it fit for His temple? Pray God that He may search you and lead you in the way everlasting, and that He may apply the chisel to fit you for some useful place in His temple. Then there is the silent putting in its place. All debris is left behind and you are brought into the sacred precincts. Is not the discipline worth while, that you may reach that perfection, that Christ-likeness, that enables you to find the place you are fitted for and that is fitted for you. I sometimes wonder if lack of faith does not prevent us from finding our place in God's great plan. Where He has put us in our place, helping Him in helping others, and living in loving fellowship with them. We find the complete life in realizing that we are one of many made ready for Him. So the structure grows. We are being prepared to slip into our place where we shall finally reach the maturity of perfection and work for Him. Living stones chiseled and ready for the Master's service! God grant that each and all of us may thus be made fit for the Master's use.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

Why does God allow such things? God says "In the world you shall have tribulation." But after all what do you desire? To be made a real support for His temple? Then think of the divine architect and submit. Are you satisfied with your character? Is it fit for His temple? Pray God that He may search you and lead you in the way everlasting, and that He may apply the chisel to fit you for some useful place in His temple. Then there is the silent putting in its place. All debris is left behind and you are brought into the sacred precincts. Is not the discipline worth while, that you may reach that perfection, that Christ-likeness, that enables you to find the place you are fitted for and that is fitted for you. I sometimes wonder if lack of faith does not prevent us from finding our place in God's great plan. Where He has put us in our place, helping Him in helping others, and living in loving fellowship with them. We find the complete life in realizing that we are one of many made ready for Him. So the structure grows. We are being prepared to slip into our place where we shall finally reach the maturity of perfection and work for Him. Living stones chiseled and ready for the Master's service! God grant that each and all of us may thus be made fit for the Master's use.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

Why does God allow such things? God says "In the world you shall have tribulation." But after all what do you desire? To be made a real support for His temple? Then think of the divine architect and submit. Are you satisfied with your character? Is it fit for His temple? Pray God that He may search you and lead you in the way everlasting, and that He may apply the chisel to fit you for some useful place in His temple. Then there is the silent putting in its place. All debris is left behind and you are brought into the sacred precincts. Is not the discipline worth while, that you may reach that perfection, that Christ-likeness, that enables you to find the place you are fitted for and that is fitted for you. I sometimes wonder if lack of faith does not prevent us from finding our place in God's great plan. Where He has put us in our place, helping Him in helping others, and living in loving fellowship with them. We find the complete life in realizing that we are one of many made ready for Him. So the structure grows. We are being prepared to slip into our place where we shall finally reach the maturity of perfection and work for Him. Living stones chiseled and ready for the Master's service! God grant that each and all of us may thus be made fit for the Master's use.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

Why does God allow such things? God says "In the world you shall have tribulation." But after all what do you desire? To be made a real support for His temple? Then think of the divine architect and submit. Are you satisfied with your character? Is it fit for His temple? Pray God that He may search you and lead you in the way everlasting, and that He may apply the chisel to fit you for some useful place in His temple. Then there is the silent putting in its place. All debris is left behind and you are brought into the sacred precincts. Is not the discipline worth while, that you may reach that perfection, that Christ-likeness, that enables you to find the place you are fitted for and that is fitted for you. I sometimes wonder if lack of faith does not prevent us from finding our place in God's great plan. Where He has put us in our place, helping Him in helping others, and living in loving fellowship with them. We find the complete life in realizing that we are one of many made ready for Him. So the structure grows. We are being prepared to slip into our place where we shall finally reach the maturity of perfection and work for Him. Living stones chiseled and ready for the Master's service! God grant that each and all of us may thus be made fit for the Master's use.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

Why does God allow such things? God says "In the world you shall have tribulation." But after all what do you desire? To be made a real support for His temple? Then think of the divine architect and submit. Are you satisfied with your character? Is it fit for His temple? Pray God that He may search you and lead you in the way everlasting, and that He may apply the chisel to fit you for some useful place in His temple. Then there is the silent putting in its place. All debris is left behind and you are brought into the sacred precincts. Is not the discipline worth while, that you may reach that perfection, that Christ-likeness, that enables you to find the place you are fitted for and that is fitted for you. I sometimes wonder if lack of faith does not prevent us from finding our place in God's great plan. Where He has put us in our place, helping Him in helping others, and living in loving fellowship with them. We find the complete life in realizing that we are one of many made ready for Him. So the structure grows. We are being prepared to slip into our place where we shall finally reach the maturity of perfection and work for Him. Living stones chiseled and ready for the Master's service! God grant that each and all of us may thus be made fit for the Master's use.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

Why does God allow such things? God says "In the world you shall have tribulation." But after all what do you desire? To be made a real support for His temple? Then think of the divine architect and submit. Are you satisfied with your character? Is it fit for His temple? Pray God that He may search you and lead you in the way everlasting, and that He may apply the chisel to fit you for some useful place in His temple. Then there is the silent putting in its place. All debris is left behind and you are brought into the sacred precincts. Is not the discipline worth while, that you may reach that perfection, that Christ-likeness, that enables you to find the place you are fitted for and that is fitted for you. I sometimes wonder if lack of faith does not prevent us from finding our place in God's great plan. Where He has put us in our place, helping Him in helping others, and living in loving fellowship with them. We find the complete life in realizing that we are one of many made ready for Him. So the structure grows. We are being prepared to slip into our place where we shall finally reach the maturity of perfection and work for Him. Living stones chiseled and ready for the Master's service! God grant that each and all of us may thus be made fit for the Master's use.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

Why does God allow such things? God says "In the world you shall have tribulation." But after all what do you desire? To be made a real support for His temple? Then think of the divine architect and submit. Are you satisfied with your character? Is it fit for His temple? Pray God that He may search you and lead you in the way everlasting, and that He may apply the chisel to fit you for some useful place in His temple. Then there is the silent putting in its place. All debris is left behind and you are brought into the sacred precincts. Is not the discipline worth while, that you may reach that perfection, that Christ-likeness, that enables you to find the place you are fitted for and that is fitted for you. I sometimes wonder if lack of faith does not prevent us from finding our place in God's great plan. Where He has put us in our place, helping Him in helping others, and living in loving fellowship with them. We find the complete life in realizing that we are one of many made ready for Him. So the structure grows. We are being prepared to slip into our place where we shall finally reach the maturity of perfection and work for Him. Living stones chiseled and ready for the Master's service! God grant that each and all of us may thus be made fit for the Master's use.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

Why does God allow such things? God says "In the world you shall have tribulation." But after all what do you desire? To be made a real support for His temple? Then think of the divine architect and submit. Are you satisfied with your character? Is it fit for His temple? Pray God that He may search you and lead you in the way everlasting, and that He may apply the chisel to fit you for some useful place in His temple. Then there is the silent putting in its place. All debris is left behind and you are brought into the sacred precincts. Is not the discipline worth while, that you may reach that perfection, that Christ-likeness, that enables you to find the place you are fitted for and that is fitted for you. I sometimes wonder if lack of faith does not prevent us from finding our place in God's great plan. Where He has put us in our place, helping Him in helping others, and living in loving fellowship with them. We find the complete life in realizing that we are one of many made ready for Him. So the structure grows. We are being prepared to slip into our place where we shall finally reach the maturity of perfection and work for Him. Living stones chiseled and ready for the Master's service! God grant that each and all of us may thus be made fit for the Master's use.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, who has been appointed Dominion of Canada Advisory Officer for League of Nations purposes at Geneva.

member of His kingdom. Some will say "God left me alone in my temptation." When the stone was brought out of the quarry it was not cuddled, the chisel and axe must do their work.

KINGSPOURT

The Working Band of Kingsport Congregational church held a successful Valentine party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Dickie Tuesday evening, Feb. 10, more than 75 members and friends being present. A special feature was the presence of the Junior choir, who gave several delightful selections, led by Miss Juanita Loomer. Vocal trios by Messrs. Walter Loomer, Robert Woodburn, and William Webb, vocal duets by Miss Aileen Dickie and Miss Marion Nixon were also much appreciated.

Supper was served and a social hour enjoyed, those assisting being Mrs. A. W. Dickie, Mrs. E. I. Loomer, Mrs. Fred West, Mrs. Robert Woodburn, Mrs. Roy Loomer, Miss Minnie Woodburn, Misses Aileen Dickie, Marion Nixon, Lillian Bigelow. Each guest was presented with a heart as a reminder of an evening of pleasure.

The Sewing Circle of the Congregational church was enjoyably entertained last week by Mrs. Frank Loomer.

We regret that Miss Elizabeth Kinsman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Kinsman, is ill with pleura pneumonia at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer. Miss Kinsman was visiting Mrs. Palmer when taken ill.

Miss Carrie Weaver, who has spent six weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weaver, left on Feb. 11 for Regina, where she has an important position.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained the Bridge Club, of eight tables, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Fred West and the gentlemen's by J. B. Cox.

centration, initiative, memory and imagination. As a spelling reformer they are without parallel. The reaction is bound to improve one's general knowledge.

A few sober Saxons still insist that the fad is without sense or benefit—which will console those in America who are convinced that this branch of the family, in its devotion to puzzles is approaching insanity. But Professor Low does not concede their point.

"I do not agree," he says, "with the few who say that the craze is mad. All jokes and puzzles are founded on fact; Banana skins really are slippery and mothers-in-law very often difficult. No one, however, should take them too seriously. Cross word puzzles cannot, in themselves, work out an extraordinary development. They merely encourage the great result—improvement of the brain."

"With due appreciation of the hold they have made on the public fancy, the originators should realize their opportunity and spare no effort in making the puzzles as instructive as possible. They should, for example, avoid words like 'egg'. They should make these puzzles impart real knowledge.

"Men and women of all classes have found something new to occupy their thoughts. They enjoy being able to boast to their friends that they have worked a puzzle out."

"Men and women of all classes have found something new to occupy their thoughts. They enjoy being able to boast to their friends that they have worked a puzzle out."

"Men and women of all classes have found something new to occupy their thoughts. They enjoy being able to boast to their friends that they have worked a puzzle out."

"Men and women of all classes have found something new to occupy their thoughts. They enjoy being able to boast to their friends that they have worked a puzzle out."

"Men and women of all classes have found something new to occupy their thoughts. They enjoy being able to boast to their friends that they have worked a puzzle out."