OFFICIAL CHANGES IN CANADIAN PACIFIC

Important Changes in the Freight Traffic Department Made Public

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner) Montreal, Nov. 1.—Mr. W. A. McInnes, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, made public yesterday the following changes in the freight-traffic department of that line, effective Nov. 15, 1922: W. B. Langlan, freight traffic manager of the company's rail lines, assumes the duties of general freight traffic manager, all lines, rail and ocean. E. N. Todd, general foreign freight agent, becomes freight traffic manager rail lines. W. M. Kirkpatrick, assistant freight traffic manager, becomes general foreign freight agent—Atlantic and Pacific Ocean lines.

The Empire Fair Tangle Is Being Unravalled Now

High Commissioners of Dominions to be Asked to Become Members of Committee—Major Belcher's Denial—Publicity Given to General Confusion Has Had Salutary Effect on Situation.

(John MacCormac's Special Cable to The Montreal Gazette and The Daily Gleaner. Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act.) London, Nov. 1.—No further official statement of policy with regard to the use of the Empire materials only will be made by the management committee of the British Empire exhibition in reply to the criticisms recently expressed in Canada and the other Dominions. It is considered that the enunciation by the Duke of Devonshire last week of the general policy of the committee, and his further announcement that the High Commissioners of the Dominions would be asked to join the committee with the specific purpose of ensuring the use of Empire products where possible, meets the situation.

MURDERER NOT RATIONAL BEING

Regarded Shooting of Englishmen Same as Shooting a Mad Dog

Port Arthur, Ont., Nov. 1.—That in shooting an Englishman he was doing his country a service and regarded it only as a normal man would the shooting of a mad dog, was the medical evidence accepted by a jury at the Assizes here yesterday in finding Norman Ferguson not capable of offering rational defense on the charge of shooting with intent to kill. Ferguson ran amuck on a Port William street last March, badly wounding Constable Arthur Pemberton.

CURRENCY SHOWS SOUND BUSINESS

American Comment on Fact of Canadian Money at Premium

New York, Nov. 1.—The New York Herald, commenting on the fact that the Canadian dollar is falling now by a fraction of a cent's width than the dollar of Uncle Sam, declares it is natural that Canada should be proud of this fact as it is only a short time since Canadian currency was at a discount of 16 or 17 per cent in United States money.
