A BRANCH LADIES' LAND LEAGUE.

Mrs. Sullivan, wife of the member for Meath, visited Tullamore to-day and formed a ladies' Land League for the purpose of earrying on the League work in case of the arrest of the local leader. Several ladies joined, and an executive committee and other officers were appointed. Branches were also formed in other towns and villages of Ireland.

A proposal to depart from the ordinary and legitimate procedure of Parliament, and to auppress at a stroke the liberties of our country, has imposed upon us dufies from which we could not shrink. If you be true to yourselves your triumph is certain. To our countrymen in Great Britain we ap-peal to frustrate all endeavours to excite en-mity between them and their English fellow-citizens, among whom many generous voices are even now raised on our behalf. In some districts the burning of hayricks and midnight visits by armed partices to farm-houses are still reported. Since the Fenian scare the authorities of Cork harbour have taken unusual precautions by watching any movements of boats at night.

Merchants' Marine Insurance Company-Outrage by a Servant Girl on her Mis-tress. MONTREAL, Feb. 8.—A stormy meeting of the shareholders of the Merchants' Marine Insurance Company was held here to-day, when the resolution of the directors to wind up the company was manimously adopted. A yourg servant girl named Emma Laurin, employed in the family of Mr. J. B. Resther, architect, on St. Denis street, committed a verrible outrage upon Mrs. Resther. It ap-pears the girl had been acting strangely in the house, and Mrs. Resther announced that she would not retain her services. This morning on Mrs. Resther entering the kitchen she ap-proached the stove, when the girl came up stalthily and dashed a pot of scalding water in her mistress's face. She then rushed out of the house and nothing more was heard of her until this afternoon, when the detectives found her in the Bonsecours Roman Catholic church. It appears that in a former situation in this city the prisoner attempted to take the life of a fellow-servant with a carving knife. On being questioned after her arrest as to her motives for attacking Mrs. Resther, she said that it was only a wild im-puise that led her to do it, as she had always been well treated by the lady. Mrs. Resther is suffering a great deal from the effects of the hot water, but she is not in a dangerous condition. ALBANT, N. Y., Feb. 4.
