mingham gaol to prevent any attempt to rescue the dynamiters Daly, Egan, and Mo-Donnell. The sentries have been doubled. A note in reference to the open collection of funds in the United States for dynamite outrages in England is reported to have been forwarded to Washington by Earl Granville. Mr. Parnell has written to Mr. Timothy Harrington, Home Rule member for county Westmeath, congratulating the Nationalis upon their victory at Newry, and advising conciliation and restraint. An Irish-American bearing the name Murphy has been arrested in a small town on the shores of Bantry bay, in the south of Ireland. The police connect his appearance with the coming of the channel squadron. The Parnellites claim that as a result of the passage of the Franchise bill they will carry every constituency is Leinster, Mun-ster, and Connaught, and that in Ulster they will return representatives for Armagh, Monaghan, Tyrone, Donegal, and possibly Derry, Down, and Fermanagh. Much excitement still prevails at Newry.

Two Protestants were knocked down and badly beaten there on Sunday. Arrangements are being made for a monster meeting at Belfast to protest against the Government's policy of encouraging Nationalists and sup-pressing Loyalist demonstrations.

The Imperial Government has decided that while it will not interfere with counterdemonstrations in Ireland by Orangem when held separately it will prevent their taking place at the same time and locality as Nationalist meetings. North ot Ireland lovalists are much excited over this decision. indignation meetings will probably be held to protest against it.

with the Nationalists without reinforcements. He believed that a collision, attended with bloodshed, was inevitable if the Nationalists persisted in their determination of assembling at Newry next Sunday, and held that the Government would be directly responsible for every drop of blood spilled. He thought, however, that the Government would funk at the last moment and remove the interdiction against the Orange meeting, or else suppress that of the Nationalists.

LONDON, June 9, —The Orangemen are now endeavouring to regain the prestige which they lost by yesterday's factor at Newry. They, say now that Viceroy, Spencer's order can be translated in the Orange interest, and they mean to make use of that translation. The Lord-Lieutenant forbade counter politi-cal demonstrations by Orangemen at the same times and places as the meetings of Nationa-lists, with a view of permitting free speech, but at the same time preserving the peace. The Orangemen argue that if they are to be prevented from interfering with the Lesguers' meeting, the Lesguers must similarly be pre-vented from interfering with the Orange meetings, and claim that the Government is pledged to protect them in their future as-semblages, provided only that they are anblages, provided only that they are anounced in advance of similar meetings by the Orangemen now propose a widespread series of demonstrations on the 12th of July next, which will be the 194th anniversary of the battle of the Boyne. They claim they will be able to parade 50,000 able-bodied men, while the Nationalists say that they will agree to kick into the Boyne all the Orangemen who can be mustered above 5,000, "barring the boys."
