CHILDRENS' XMAS STORY.

Santa Claus sat by the fire in his own home, looking anxious and troubled. His droll little mouth was not drawn up like a THE HERALD PRINTING AND PUBLISHING CO. bow; his eyes had not twinkled for ten minutes; and his dimples, even, wouldn't have looked merry if they could have helped it.

Santa Claus sat there thinking - thinking. It was just before Christmas. What was the matter with the good jolly old saint? Had his sleigh broken down? Had any of his reindeers run away? Had he lost his own, particular, pet, private map? - for a body must have a wonderful map to guide him all about among the chimneys of the whole world.

But no, - it was none of these things. Couldn't he find toys enough to go round? Bless your dear little anxious heart, don't festival at this season to celebrate the reyou be afraid of that! Nor a drum; nor a cart; nor a wheelbarrow; nor a ship; nor a fire one of those fascinating clocks!" and Santa Claus looked very wistfully at the cricket, and then sighed heavily. "But I know I couldn't. I can't bear to see the nice presents and interesting toys broken to pieces. But I've thought of one thing, Cricket; and I don't believe he could break it. And yet he would like it, I am sure." Santa looked a little more cheerfully at the cricket, and continued: "I thought of a some blocks of wood to hammer the nails into! That's the present for him.
