Notes and Comments.

under date Jan. 21, the present Government devoted a good deal of space to what they allege has been accomplished by them in the matter of agriculture. It is interesting to compare what Sir Edward Morris is doing with what Sir Robert Bond intended,

Sir Robert Bond believed that if agriculture was to prosper in this country it was necessary to afford scientific advice to those engaging in

Canada's agricultural greatness is due, in a large measure, to the scientific treatment of soils, stock, seeds, &c. and this scientific knowledge has been provided through the agency of Knowing this, Sir Robert Bond established a model farm at St. John's, under the management of a graduate of the Agricultural College at Guelph.

This young man came to us with both practical and scientific knowledge and competent to give expert advice on the capabilities of soils seeds, fertilizers, stock, &c.

It was further a part of Sir Robert's policy to provide for desirable students to take courses in both practical and scientific farming. Two students per year from each district a short time under that scheme we should have had a large number of young men intelligently devoting their this month the centenary of Livingenergies to this important industry.

The present Government has spent at least $40,000 per year for the last four years, or $160,000 of the people's money on this so-called agricultural policy. This truly is a large sum, and people are asking where are the returns for this expenditure.

It is now rumoured in the city that some of these societies have decided to use the Government agricultural grants to purchase provisions and sell the same to its members below the current price, and so put the Government in competition with the business men in these localities.

Though big money has been spent, ostensibly to promote agriculture, there are no returns, the earth has not given her increase, and that not because the country is incapable of giving good returns in this regard, but because of the foolish policy pursued by the so-called "Picnic Party."

Major Fred Burnham, the British cout, whose career is one of the most thrilling stories in the history of South Africa, is to undertake a remarkable task. He is to escort John Hays Hammond into the country of the Yaqui Indians in Mexico for the purpose of pacifying this unruly people in the interests of the Mexican

The Yaquis for more than thirty years have been in a state of revolt against the authorities and years ago love and admiration of these tribesmen. ### OBITUARY.

There passed peacefully away at New Melbourne, on January 19th, John Snelgrove, aged 62 years; leaving a wife, one son, one daughter, one brother, five sisters and a large circle of friends to mourn their sad loss. He was well liked and respected by all who knew him for his straightforwardness. Halifax and Boston papers classes of the straightforwardness.

PRONT SEATS AND SHORT

Why should visitors to strange churches be marched up to the front sents irrespective of their length of necka? This is what is being asked in the Christian World by several correspondents who complain that having to crane the neck in order to see the preacher is the acme of discomfort.

No Thanks to Them!

One would imagine in reading yesterday's Herald that something recent and of great value to them had been done by Morris and his Picnic Party for the fishermen of Petty Harbour in the formulating of an injunction to prevent mill owners or others from cutting about Big Pond, reserving the limit for the fishermen. McGrath is again (as you yesterday remarked) alring his ignorance and earning his wages in writing trash of Morris and his moribund Government. This place would not have been reserved for the fishermen had not the people of Petty Harbour memorialized the Government on it last fall, so that Morris could not help himself, and of course had to grant their request. Now why did he not do the same with the LeManche limits and restrain the Reid Nfid. Co. from cutting these out. There is no thanks to Morris or his party for doing what has been done at Big Pond they had to delite and party for doing what has been done at Big Pond, they had to do it and that's all there is to it. Patsy's fibbing won't alter the fact that this was done last fall, and that it would have been utterly perfected. utterly neglected but for the peremptory representations of the people of Petty Harbour which Morris dare not
