JOHN L. SLATTERY, Secretary-Treasurer.

NOTICE!

As some evilly disposed party or parties have spread a report that it was my car which was responsible for the death of Mr. John Jeans on Thursday evening last, I beg to inform my friends and the public that such report is absolutely false and that I am in a position to prove that my car did not leave the Garage till after 10 o'clock on the night of the accident. Furthermore, I beg to warn the parties responsible for the above mentioned report that if they can be traced they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Christmas Parcels

The Christmas rush is great in normal times. With millions of men under arms it is a tremendous strain on all Postal Staffs, and delays are unavoidable.

In the Old Country 75 per cent. of trained Postal Officials are with the Army, and their work is being done by untrained men and women.

For the Home parcels to reach England before Christmas, the sooner they are posted the surer will their timely delivery be.

To reach our gallant lads in France, parcels should be despatched as early this month as possible.

Please pack securely. Do not use sharp edged boxes. Square boxes should always have their edges padded.
