At Milwaukee, Wis., a shoemaker named August Rettsch, aged 39 years, suddenly became a raving maniac Saturday night and attacked his family with a razor. Rettsch then severed the arteries of his wrists, and then cut his throat from car to ear, so that his death is a certainty. His wife, aged 38, was seriously injured, and Joseph Schaefer, aged 38, was so badly cut that he will die.

MR. LAURIER IN MANITCHA.

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier opened the campaign in Manitoba most auspiciously at Virden on Saturday. Notwithstanding that there was a blinding snow storm throughout the day, the telegraph informs us that the meeting was one of the largest that the leader has addressed in the west. outside of the cities, and nowhere has it been exceeded in enthusiasm. Mr. Laurier was first received by Mayor Kennedy, of Virden, Reeve Crosby, of Wallace, and Reeve Forke, of Pipestone, the municipalities that comprise the county of Dennis. On behalf of the county the mayor read an address to the leader, couched in appreciative language. The hall, large though it was, could not accommodate all who wished to hear the gifted leader. Mr. Laurier made a most effective presentation of the principles of his party, and amid the cheers ef the audience demonstrated that the hope of the west is in the policy of freedom of trade. Interesting speeches were made by Mr. Fisher, Mr. Gibson, Mr. Frases and Mr. Sutherland, M.P'a.

Cornelius Mulligan Arrested in the Court Room.

Charged With Stabbing Temple in the Breast-Clemason Held for Cutting Him in the Hip-Charged With Non-Support.

At the Police Court this morning the magistrate went into the charge of stabbing preferred by Wallacce Temple against Frank Clemason, the Swede. "Do you see anything the matter with me?' queried Temple. "Go on about your business or I'll kick your head off," replied the unknown as he rushed for Temple's legs. Temple knocked him down and then grappled with Mulligan. Clemson now came across the street, and someone said:

LOOK OUT, WALLACE, HE HAS A KNIFE." Temple claims that Clemason then stabbed him on the hip, and seeing that he was outclassed he ran up Clarence to York street. His hip pained him so that he slowed up to a walk. At Slater's storage Clemason, Mulligan and two other men caught up to him again and set on him. He backed up against the wall and fought. Mr. Meredith tried to get witness to admit that he had crossed the road and picked the quarrel, but Temple stuck to his story. He denied that he had been turned off the station platform that night for disorderly conduct and said that he did not know the general character of the young fellows he met at the end of the platform.

Temple-That's what it looks like. Mr. Meredith then tried to show that the stabbing had been done because of Temple kicking his assailant in a delicate portion of the body. The witness admitted that he had kicked and fought when the four set on him on York street, but not before.

MULLIGAN ARRESTED IN COURT. This finished the examination and then matters took an unexpected turn. Mulligan had been sitting among the spectators and witnesses while a little sheet of paper had been flitting between the clerk and the magistrate. It was quietly sworn to by Temple and handed to Detective Rider. Mr. Rider went over to where Mulligan was sitting and sat down next to him and read a warrant for his arrest. The latest prisoner, Mulligan, has worked at Labatt's brewery for over two years.
