CHICAGO, Ill., April 12. May liquidation caused a drop in wheat today. For a few moments after opening, much apprehension was feit that there might be a big break in prices, but after a sudden plunge big break in prices, but after a sudden plunge of a cent the pressure was removed and a steadier feeling ensued, the close showing a loss of $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ for the day. Corn directuated with wheat, but the close was at unchanged prices from yesterday. Oats were weak, clossing with a fractional loss for the day. Provisions were strong. At the close May pork showed a gain of 55 cents over yesterday. May lard 12\frac{1}{2}$ c, and May ribs 27\frac{1}{2}$ c.

The G. T. R. pay car is in town to-day

-Mr. Gow, inspector of inland revenue, was in the city this afternoon. -- Rev. J W. Saunby will be resident in Toronto for the next three months.

-Judge Wm. Elliot presided at the sitting of the First Division Court to-day. -Mr. Fred. Gamble, of this city, leaves to-morrow by the Grand Trunk for New Westminster, B. C.

-The late Richard Gough, of Dufferin avenue, East London, left an estate valued at between $5,000 and $6,000. The larger portion of it was left to his housekeeper. -Mr. George Insell desires it understood that he was neither drunk nor fighting, as stated in the Police Court the other morning. He merely happened to meet some friends and suffered on their account. -Mrs. Benjamin Legg, of Dundas street east, met with a peculiar accident the other day. She was walking across a room upstairs and accidentally stepped into a stovepipe hole. Mrs. Legg received a severe sprain of the right ankle. -The annual meeting of the railroad men and the G. T. R. superintendent is at present going on in Toronto. Several delegates are present from London with local grievances, but the visit has nothing to do with the denied reduction of 10 per cent in wages.

-Seventy six appeals have been entered against the London West voters' lists as solo by Miss Nellie Deacon, and an address and comic selection by Mr. R. G. Davis (the chairman) made up a pleasant entertainment at St. James' Church last night under the auspices of the Young Men's Society.

-The new Children's Aid Society had an enthusiastic meeting yesterday, the president, Mr. Break, in the chair. The need and usefulness of the society has already been demonstrated. Plenty of work is already mapped out. There are a number of neglected children awaiting their care, but until an inspector is appointed little can be done. The society hopes soon to have its official.

-One point to be discussed at to-night's meeting of the council re car shops is the advisability of extending the bonus offer for another three months. Under the last bylaw the offer had to be accepted by the Grand Trunk within three months. The time limit has almost expired and the offer has not yet been accepted, and that it may still hold good the council will meet tonight and probably extend the time.

James Kelly arrived in New York the other day from Ireland. He was accompanied by his wife and five children, the eldest of whom is only 7 years old. From New York they bought tickets to Windsor, Ont., where they expected to find friends. When they arrived there the friends had left for another part. The chief of police in Windsor discovered that they were in Woodstock and started the family back in that direction. Their money gave out at this point and the city supplied passage the rest of the distance. -Complaints reach the ADVERTISER that some persons in attending tunerals at Woodland Cemetery, are far from careful in driving through the grounds. Indeed, it is charged that there has been gross carelessness, and that more than one driver, in his haste to get back to the city, has departed from the drives and taken a short over the graves. This is a serious accusation, and if proved in court it would be a damaging exposure for those found guilty. Woodland Cemetery is a beautifully kept place, and all frequenters should strive to keep it so, and to avoid unseemly conduct of every description. -John Jones, a middle-aged man, is now behind the bars in the county jail, and the charge of horse-stealing is entered against his name. Jones drove into London West last night with a valuable team of horses and a light wagon. He then proceeded to a woods near Mount Pleasant Cemetery, where the horses were turned loose for the night, and when Jones was going to take the animals away this morning he was arrested by Village Constable Ward. An attempt is now being made to find the owner of the team. The prisoner is said to be a son of Thomas Jones, who was hung in the London jail yard in 1868, for the murder of his niece Mary.

London Black Bass Club. The London Black Bass Club is so fairly under way that already upwards of 50 anglers have become members. Its object is to carry out the laws relating to fish in the River Thames near London. The club has had 500 copies of the fish laws printed, and they are now being posted in conspicuous places. A Dominion guardian has been appointed to patrol the river and put of under-sized black bass, and to cause offenders to be prosecuted. It is illegal to take any kind of bass between April 15 and July 1, or black bass at any time of less than ten inches in length or to fish by any other means than by hook and line.

London Chinamen Imprisoned. Two London Chinamen are languishing in a Detroit prison charged with smuggling themselves into the country. They were captured at Adrain on their way to Chicago, and it is stated on good authority that they are members of the Queen's Avenue Sunday school Chinese class. Most of the London colony strenuously deny that the theaxim that a shut mouth catches no flielnd are as good at beating around a queen as a Philadelphia lawyer. They willot disclose the Chinamen's names altigh a couple admit that the arrested meame from this city.

Bit Class Social.

I members of Mr. T. B. Escott's Bible clashed a few friends to the number of abo50, in response to his invitation, assemed at his beautiful residence, No. 566 Duis street, last evening and had a good tim Rev. Chas. Smith presided, and shoaddresses were made by the chairmand by Messrs. Swan, Henderson and Bue. The party then adjourned to the findining-room, where choice refreshmerwere served and an address read by MrGeorge Wyatt, highly complimentary of t manner in which Mr. Escott has conduc his Bible class in connection with theilborne Street Church Sabbath school. Thecipient responded in a happy speech, thaing the class for this additional mark of tir esteem, and hoping for greater succesa the future. Music, with Miss Bissell the piano, and games were then introced and heartily enjoyed, after whi all present joined in singing "God be th us till we meet again," all pleased withaving spent an evening which both Mrnd Mrs. Escott did their utmost to malpleasant to all.

INREASED DUTY ON TOBACCO. Wilesale Cigar Trade in Great Britain

All Torn Up. INDON, April 13 .- The wholesale cigar træ is in a panicky condition in view of thoudget, which will be presented by Sir Wiam Harcourt, the Chancellor of the Emequer, on Monday next. Up to the prent the duty on cigars has been 5s per poid, on eigarettes 4s per pound, and on tolcco 3s 2d per pound. The tobacco mehants here believe that Sir Willia Harcourt proposes to raise the du' on cigars to 7s per pound, and if his should turn out to be the case it understood that the entire tobacco træ of Great Britain will be revolutionize and that continental, Indian, Manillan an Mexican cigars will entirely disappear fra the market, as they could not, with thencrease of duty, compete with homemae cigars. Havana cigars would also beene much dearer. The panic has reveæd that gigantic clearances have been mae from the bonded warehouses. Hundres of cases of cigars, cigarettes and tolcco are delivered daily to the impolers, and the dock and customs officers areardly able to cope with the demands of ie importers.

Sine the suit, as for some time previous. theearl and the countess have lived apart, and the countess has now brought suit aganst her husband for the restitution of herconjugal rights. The papers in the case wer served upon Earl Russell as he alignted from a train at Paddington

Scratched for Years.

Ednanson, Bates & Co.: Dear Sir,-I wish to testify to the value of Dr. Chase's Ointment. For years I hav: been a great sufferer from Itchy Skin troible and Salt Rheum; my hands and ankles were literally raw, and after having usel a number of other remedies without berefit, I procured a bottle of your ointmest, which allayed the itching, burning down illegal fishing, to prevent the taking had used the first box they were healing nicely. I got the second box, but was well before I had used half of it. But I have used it for chilblains and can truly sav it is the very best remedy I ever used. Yours gratefully, HENRY A. PARMENTER, St. Catherines, Ont.

WANTS PIN MONEY.

Remarkable Suit Brought Against a Toronto Baker.

TORONTO, April 12.- A singular action will be tried at the next sitting of the Civil Assize Court in Toronto, the plaintiff being Mrs. Sarah Warburton, a widow residing in Wellesley street. The defendant is a local baker, and the action is for damages, medical attendance and loss of time from the sticking of a pin in her throat. It appears that the woman purchased a loaf of bread from the baker's delivery wagon, and, cutting off a slice, proceeded to eat it. When she got half way through she felt something stick in her throat, and at once took a drink of water, shortly after which the pain became so intense that she went to a doctor, who, after trying various measures for nearly an hour, succeeded in extracting the pin, but the woman is still suffering from her injuries.

LAURIER'S FASCINATING ELOQUENCE.

The Galleries Filled When He Spoke-A Straight Party Vete. (Special to the ADVERTISER.) OTTAWA, Ont., April 13. -It is a remarkable tribute to the fascination of the Liberal leader's elequence that when he rose yesterday to speak the house and galleries filled up rapidly and as great a crowd listened to Mr. Laurier as assembled to hear the budget. It was a straight party vote with Messrs. McCarthy, O'Brien, MacDonnell, McKeen and Calvin absent. Of these five absentees Messrs. McCarthy and O'Brien are against the Government, and Mr. Calvin is uncerain, as he voted last year for Sir Richard Cartwright's amendment. Messrs. Mac-Donnell and McKeen are Conservatives. The absentees do not therefore alter the result, and 56 may be taken as the full majority of the Government. Gloucester, N. B., is vacant. There was a very full vote. There were 200 voted out of 215 members. On the occasion of the division on the Jesuit estates resolution there were 201, or only one more. The following members were paired for the amendment: Mulock, Livingstone, Bowman and Bourassa. Against the amendment: Corbould, Barnard, Hughes and Baird. This was the first division of the session. The Government had a majority of seven more last session in a full House. The railway committee this morning passed the bill extending the time for the construction of the Canada and Michigan Tunnel until the year 1900. This is the first act of Parliament extending its jurisdiction into the twentieth century. Dr. Montague had charge of the bill.

A Terrible Fatality.

Union of the Churches. Rome, April 13.—The Pope has shown to various cardinals of his household proofs of his encyclical letter on the subject of the union of the Roman Catholic and Greek Churches, which his holiness regards as of the highest political and religious importance. The letter declares that the union will restore the complete autonomy of schismatic churches. The synod nominating the patriarchate and the latter nominating bishops will give the same autonomy to the national churches as they enjoyed in the earlier centuries. The eastern churches will be rendered absolutely independent of Latin-

The Buffalo Fire,

Slowly Strangled.
St. Louis, Mo., April 13.—At 6:13 this morning Chas. Wisdom (colored), aged 22. was hanged in the jailyard in the presence of about 30 people. The hanging was quickly performed, but the drop was too short, and Wisdom slowly strangled to death. Wisdom robbed and murdered Edward A. Drexeler, a tobacconist.

Lee Lok Left. PETOSKEY, Mich., April 13.—Last week Lee Lok, a Chinese laundryman, sent a Chicago girl $100 to come here and be his wife. She came. Now she is missing; so are several hundred dollars, a diamond pin and other valuables belonging to Lee. "Melican woman beliy bad man," says the Chinaman.

Boy Burned to Death. St. John, N. B., April 12.-A house near

Fairville, occupied by two families, was burned yesterday morning. The inmates, with the exception of one lad, managed to escaped in their night clothing. This youth, who was 16 years old, son of Wm. Hind, could not be rescued. He was of unsound mind and did not know enough to save himself. His father was severely burned in trying to get him out, but the boy was burned to death.
