Does It Pay

To dress well? No thinking man will answer but that the investment is a good one. Dressing well does not mean that one must wear broadcloth. Deeks & Munson, for instance, have upon their tables many fine samples of cloth that look well, wear well, and are put together on the best looms from only first-class material. They are goods intended for business suits, some of them; others are for "best." But any of them are fit for any occasion. If necessary, and they do not come high in price, they meet the demands of the times to a nicety. They cost no more than poorer stuff made up by inferior tailors, and that gives no satisfaction from the first week of its existence to its speedy end. Dress well. It saves your self-respect, saves your pocket, and extends your life by keeping out discontent.

Legations' Fate Still in Doubt

Severe Fighting at Tien Tsin on 3rd and 4th July.

Torrential Rain Comes to the Relief of the Allies—A Message From the Emperor to the European Powers—Asks Aid in Supporting the Present Government—Japs Sending 63,000 Troops to China—Dispatch From the Governor of Shan Tung Says All the Legations Are Safe Excepting the German—Missionaries Getting Away.

London, Wednesday, July 11.—"No authentic news from Peking" is still the burden of the dispatches from the far east, and although the disposition is to believe the optimistic reports from Chinese sources, no real confidence is possible until the legations, if they are still in existence, are permitted to communicate with their governments.

SEVERE FIGHTING AROUND TIEN TSIN.

According to a special Che Foo dispatch, the fighting around Tien Tsin on July 3 and 4 was the severest yet experienced. The British losses alone were 30 killed or wounded. The Chinese had 75,000 men attacking simultaneously from the west, north and east, and made excellent practice with over 100 guns. The defenders numbered 14,000, with scant supplies, and it was only the presence of the newly-arrived Japanese and Russian guns that prevented a disaster. One Russian company of infantry, numbering 120 men, had 115 killed or wounded. The German contingent also suffered heavily. By the evening of the 4th the situation was very critical.

SAVED BY RAIN.
The allies narrowly escaped total defeat. Providentially, when things were at their worst, a torrential rain-fall completed the Chinese retreat. On July 6, the rain having abated, the Chinese renewed the attack, opening fire on Tien Tsin with two batteries of four guns, but the allies, aided by two of H. M. S. Terrible's 4.7 guns, succeeded in silencing the Chinese artillery after eight hours of fighting.

AT SHANGHAI.
Shanghai, July 10.—It is difficult to get news here, as the consuls are dependent upon Taotai Sheng for Peking news. He and other officials have large landed interests, and therefore it is supposed he will do his best to assist the foreigners in their retreat. The officials have turned all their attention to the defense of the Yang Tse, and have guaranteed to protect foreigners at Yang Tse ports, provided the foreigners established there remain quiet. No warships are allowed to land forces, and single warships only are allowed to pass the fortifications. Sheng's proposal to form a Chinese volunteer corps has been rejected.

A WRONG DATE.
A Shanghai it seems to be now the general belief that the date of the dispatch of July 3, asserting that two legations were still standing, was an error. The couriers must have left at least five days earlier, making the real date of the message June 28, while the massacres are said to have occurred on June 30. Until this matter is cleared up, the situation remains in doubt.

$20 Reward

The above reward will be paid for the apprehension and conviction of the party who sent to The London Advertiser from Komoka, in the form of a news item, a bogus marriage notice of Mr. A. Land and Miss Mabel Pender.

The... Fair Tourist

Who is up-to-date in all her methods never leaves home without tucking away in one corner of her traveling bag a bottle of "Hazeline."

She is able, thanks to this refreshing agent, to emerge after a day's ride looking as fresh and fair as a rain-drenched rose.

Where can be found an article so soothing and so refreshing as a dewy cream, a blossom-scented mixture that sinks into each pore of the skin, softening, healing and cleansing? Without Hazeline, you may consider your list of toilet articles, no matter how carefully chosen, practically incomplete.

It is far better after a day's wheeling, as a face bath, than the softest rain water and the rarest of soaps. Only 25 cents a bottle.
