THE SCHLEY TRIAL

Nearing Its Close—Thrilling Effect of Counsel's Eloquent Address.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The climax of the Schley court of inquiry came yesterday, when Mr. Raynor, chief counsel for Admiral Schley, concluded a brilliant argument of over three hours with a peroration so eloquent and impassioned that all within sound of his voice were profoundly touched.

This remarkable trial, he said, sought to condemn the man who had brought to a successful termination as great a naval triumph as was ever won in the war with Spain. In vivid colors he painted the picture of the Brooklyn, with Commodore Schley on the bridge, fighting the entire Spanish fleet until the Oregon appeared out of the smoke. The thunders of the Brooklyn, he said, aroused Admiral Schley's cautious fears. He pictured the victorious sailor suffering as few have suffered for three long years, while the fire of persecution, loaded against him, and now awaiting the hour of his vindication in the verdict of the court. "And when it comes," he concluded, "he can from the high and exalted position that he occupies, look down upon his traducers and maligners, and with excellent pride exclaim: 'I care not for the venomous gossip of cubers and envious and cliques, and the poisoned shafts of envy and malice. I wait, under the guidance of Divine Providence, the verdict of posterity.'"

The scene in the court room as counsel finished with these words was thrilling. As Mr. Raynor began his eulogy of Admiral Schley, those in the audience, many of whom were ladies, leaned forward in their seats. The spell of his oratory was over them, and when he described the admiral's gallant deeds and the long persecution to which he had been subjected, many of them broke down and wept. Admiral Schley himself was plainly moved, and as his counsel said he could afford to await the verdict of posterity, two big tears rolled down his cheeks.

HITCHED TO A WHALE!

Gloucester Fisherman Hooks Monster and Is Towed at High Speed.

Gloucester, Mass., Nov. 7.—Charles Decker, one of the crew of the schooner Maine Elliott, of this port, had a novel experience while on the fishing banks the last voyage out.

He was at anchor fishing, when his dory began to move through the water at an alarming rate of speed. He was surprised at the strange actions of his dory, until after ten minutes of fast racing a huge whale came to the surface and bloated. In the snout of the whale was the anchor, to which the dory cable was attached. Decker managed to cut the painter and free the dory. The whale continued on his race against time.

AT BRAKENLAAGTE

Boer Loss Totaled Forty Killed, Including Gen. Opperman, and One Hundred Wounded—The Weekly "Bag."

London, Nov. 7.—Lord Kitchener, cabling supplementary details of the recent fight near Brakenlaagte, Eastern Transvaal, says:

"The Boer loss was forty-four killed, including General Opperman, and one hundred wounded. The Boers got nothing beyond the guns. The Boer attack was easily repulsed until the arrival of Louis Botha with 600 men."

In his weekly report to the war office Lord Kitchener says that on October 25th the British columns report that 53 Boers have been killed, 11 wounded and 275 made prisoners. There were also 23 surrenders. Cape Colony, east of the western railway, is clear of all but 400 of the enemy.

Nine Boers with eight rifles have surrendered to the constabulary post at Boschfontein, near Rustenburg. The British horses are now in good condition.

Boer advisers state that the Boer losses in the fight of Fort Italia, in Zululand, where Col. Murray was killed, were 19 killed and wounded. Gen. Botha was in command of the Boers.

THE BOERS RAN.

Pretoria, Nov. 6.—On the approach of several converging British columns on the scene of Col. Benson's fight, near Bethel, the Boers scattered into small parties and retreated in all directions.

Gen. Botha is now believed to have gone north, probably with the intention of joining forces with the commandos north of the railway. An outbreak of horse sickness among the Boer animals is reported from several quarters. It is said that the sickness is severe, and that it may have a direct influence in finishing the conflict.

GEN. HAMILTON'S SUCCESS.

Bloemfontein, Nov. 6.—During October Gen. Hamilton's column, operating in the southern part of the Orange River colony, took fourteen prisoners and captured a quantity of stock. The Hetzog brothers and Commandants Lategan and Newhout narrowly escaped capture. Skirmishes occurred many times to ambush the British. When they were attacked they would quickly vanish. Rain greatly delayed the operations.

LOOTED POSTOFFICES.

Cape Town, Nov. 6.—Details have been received here of a Boer raid early last month on the West Coast. A patrol visited the postoffice at Stenbergs Cove, St. Helena Bay, burned the stamps and postal orders, looted the local store, and stole twelve horses. The following day thirty-six Boers entered Vredenburg postoffice, smashed the instruments, rifled the safe and placed the government officials in jail. The patrol subsequently visited Hoeljes Bay. While they were engaged in looting there the bungoat Partridge arrived, and the Boers fled. The Partridge fired eight rounds at them.

ANOTHER CANADIAN CONTINGENT.

London, Nov. 7.—The British war office, it is understood, will accept Canada's offer of a strong cavalry contingent for service in South Africa.

Another dispatch says: The offer of the Royal Canadian Regiment, stationed at Halifax, to go to South Africa, though it is most highly appreciated, will be declined with many thanks. It is unlikely that any more Canadian volunteers will be accepted, as the Imperial Government is impressed with the belief that the war will soon be over, and that if more soldiers are required to handle the Boers, the home supply will be sufficient.

TO TEACH BOERS TO SING.

Following the outcry against the treatment of children in South Africa concentration camps comes an advertisement, inserted by the board of education, in the morning papers, for female teachers to go to the camps to teach the children simple rudiments and singing. Why should the children be taught singing, pro-Boers will ask, in view of the reports of sickness and death among them? The London Times asserts, this morning, that the mortality among Boer children is always shockingly high. Boers frequently have families of twenty, half of whom die young.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—While abreast of the Grand Windsor, which passes to sea today, this morning, the transfer steamer Lansdowne collided with the barge Sophia, owned by the Connolly Bros., of Buffalo. The damage to the barge was estimated at $10,000 by her captain.

FLOATING THE ROSEMONT.
Port Colborne, Ont., Nov. 6.—The steamer Rosemont, which struck a boulder while entering the harbor last evening, is being floated by the tugboat "Rose." There will be no damage to the cargo. It is expected that the Rosemont will be floated and taken to Buffalo for repairs.

BARGES MISSING.
Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—The tug M. E. Luckenbach, which passed to sea today with the coal-laden barges Ohio, West Point and Mystic Belle, returned later with the West Point, and reported having lost the other two. A heavy wind and sea prevails, and it is feared the missing barges and their crews of four or five men have gone to the bottom.

TRAFFIC IN CORPSES

Chicago Police Think They Have Unearthed It—Eight Bodies Taken From Depot.

bodies were taken last evening from two crates at the freight office of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad. They were consigned to R. J. Jones, at Brasher, Mo., and were marked as second-hand laundry machinery. The bodies were purchased during the day from the Harvey Medical College of this city, and were being shipped to Brasher for purposes of dissection. The police are looking for Jones, but so far have been unable to locate him. The only charge that can be brought against him is the shipping of bodies in a manner contrary to law. Police officials believe that the discovery has disclosed a carefully planned scheme to traffic in cadavers. Dr. Francis M. Schoenleber is under arrest and Dr. Francis Dickinson, president of the Harvey Medical College, has been called on to explain her connection with the affair. Dr. Schoenleber refuses to discuss the charges against him. Dr. Dickinson informed the police that previous to being prepared for shipment the cadavers were the property of the college and that she disposed of them to Dr. Schoenleber with a full knowledge of how he intended to use them.

BRIDE CAME BACK!

A Burford Farmer Made Happy—Rockport Man Had His Spouse Arrested—Graham Had Two Wives.

Woodstock, Ont., Nov. 7.—Mrs. Arthur Cooper, the young bride of a Burford farmer, who ran away from her newly-made husband a week ago, turned up rather unexpectedly. She arrived in Woodstock Tuesday evening, and engaged a livery rig and driver to take her out to her father's house. When she arrived her husband received her with open arms, but spying the driver, he took him for the man who had been responsible for her long absence, and was going to take vengeance on the innocent fellow, but before he could do so the man jumped into the rig so hurriedly that he forgot to leave the woman's valise. Mrs. Cooper said she had been in Detroit, Benton Harbor and other places.

GOT HIS WIFE BACK.

Brockville, Ont., Nov. 7.—On the information of Fred Weeks, of Rockport, who stated that his wife had eloped with Capt. Lashay, of the steamer Victoria, Chief Adams today caught the woman after the steamer landed from Gananoque. The woman denied having been enticed away by Lashay, but was held until the arrival of her husband, when she was liberated. Mrs. Weeks had been absent from home since Saturday, and the husband alleges that in his absence Mrs. Weeks and Lashay removed her effects from the house. Mr. and Mrs. Weeks are not yet reconciled, and Weeks threatens to bring an action against Lashay for damages for alienating his wife's affections.

HAD TWO WIVES.

Toronto, Nov. 6.—When John Graham, of Toronto, died he is said to have left two widows, and now both claim his estate. The case was heard in the surrogate court yesterday by Judge Macdougall. Graham died on April 1. His estate was valued at $500. The National Trust Company is holding the plaintiff's claim, representing the first wife of Graham. The second wife is being sued. She was married to Graham several years ago. By his first wife Graham had several children, of whom three are alive. It is claimed Graham knew of the existence of the first wife four years ago. The second wife, Graham was married twice, and that the plaintiff has a right to share in the estate. Judgment was reserved.

"NO TONGUE CAN TELL."

The Pain Endured by Mrs. Bradley Was Beyond Description For Over Nine Years. She Never Had a Good Night's Sleep—She Couldn't Eat, and Had Given Up Hope—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Cured Her.

Mrs. James Bradley, of Smith's Cove, Digby county, N. S., is a very happy woman. For years she suffered a great deal with dyspepsia. She kept on doctoring and without relief, and for the last five months has practically given up all hope of ever being cured. Now she is well. How this came about is better told in her own words: "I had had Dyspepsia for over nine years, and I have tried the best doctors in this place, and never got any relief."

"I have had to starve myself until I was very weak. I could eat scarcely anything."

"After so many trials and failures I had given up hope of ever being any better. No tongue can tell what I have suffered. I cannot describe it."

"Some time ago I saw an advertisement of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. I purchased six boxes, and have taken nearly all of them, and I am thankful to say that I am entirely cured. I can now eat almost anything."

"For years, before using the Tablets, I had never enjoyed a good night's sleep. Now I can sleep comfortably all night, something which I never expected to do again in this world."

"I advise all who suffer as I have, to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, for they are the best remedy that ever was discovered, and I hope that this may be read by many who suffer from Dyspepsia, for I am sure that if I could make them understand what Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have done for me, it would be the means of saving many others from continual suffering."

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets always cure, no matter how chronic the case, or how long you have suffered.

The fact that other medicine has failed to cure you, does not prove that Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets never fail. They never disappoint the sufferer with stomach trouble. If you suffer, try a box, and be convinced. They will do for you what they have done for Mrs. Bradley and many others.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST FAMILY MEDICINE.

Triumphs Over Kidney and Liver Troubles and Constipation.

In the medical world of this twentieth century it would be difficult to find a single remedy which has cured so many cases of serious and chronic disease as has Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. The phenomenal success of this, the favorite prescription of the famous receipt book author and physician may be attributed to the fact that it is the only preparation extant which has a direct and combined action on the kidneys and liver. Anyone who realizes the intimate connection between these two great filtering organs can easily see the reason why Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cure where other remedies fail.

Mr. R. B. Dixon, McGillivray, B.C., writes:—"I have found Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to be exactly what I needed. Since 1897 I have been on the construction of the Crow's Nest Pass branch of the C.P.R., employed in all capacities and exposed to all kinds of weather. I contracted a severe cold, then pain across the back, and owing to the hard fare we sometimes had to live on, the liver got sluggish and out of working order. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills seemed to be the very treatment I needed, and they have made me well again. I also used Dr. Chase's Ointment for Eczema last summer. It cost 60 cents a box, but was worth $60. The cure was complete."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Because of their remarkable influence in regulating the kidneys, liver and bowels and thereby curing constipation, kidney disease and liver complaint, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have come to be considered unapproachable as a family medicine. They are found in a great majority of Canadian homes and have by far the largest sale of any similar preparation. 25 cents a box, 5 boxes for $1.00. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
