Hobbs was accused of attempting make himself "a little pope over his congregation." There were also thinly-veiled statements to the effect that members of the minister's own family indulged in worldly sports to an extent incompatible with his expressed opinions.

Factions Formed. As a result the congregation, and, in fact, the whole community, have formed themselves into two factions, and the feeling on the part of many is extremely bitter. Threats of seces sion from the church have been made both by critics of Mr. Hobbs, and those who champion his policies. A peculiar feature of the case lies in the fact that even the bitterest opponents of Mr. Hobbs' course profess to admire him as a man, while taking exception to his utterances from the A VICTIM OF PLEURISY | pulpit.

Mr. Hobbs Speaks.

When seen by an Advertiser representative Mr. Hobbs had no hesitation in detending his startling denunciation of what most of the townspeople were accustomed to regard as an innocent amusement. "I am opposed to carnivals for Chris-Walnuts, Shelled Filberts, Granulated Sugar, Yellow Sugar, Maple Sugar, Preserved Ginger, Soda Bi-Carb, French Fruits, Apricot Pulp (in tins), Milk Chocolate, Candles, Candy Palis, Confectionery and general confectionery stock Unreserved sale in lots to suit purchasers. Terms, spot cash, Goods to be removed immediately, and at the risk of the purchasers. J. W. JONES, auctioneer, 14u

'Lust of the eye'-there is where the other is not present also. As to the duke having expressly stipulated 'pride of the eye,' what do all these people dress and deck themselves up for in the effort to win the first prize?"

About Carnivals. "Don't the churches sometimes give entertainments known as carnivals?" asked the reporter. "The church has done so, but in that sense a carnival meant a feastoriginally of flesh," was the reply. "I ducted in Exeter, but if they are like Dowager Duchess of Fife. Princess those in other places I should as soon Maud is the only other child. think of countenancing attendance at a promiscuous pleasure dance, I pneumonia, following a chill, which have no quarrel, however, with skating he probably first contracted when as such.'

letter in the local paper, Mr.

Deplores Situation. Rev. J. D. Kestle, a retired clergy-man, who is a member of the church board, deplored the existing situation, but thought that the trouble would eventually be smoothed over. "The whole matter of Mr. Dewey's in ritation is now in the hands of the con-erence," he said. "I think it probable in view of the unpleasantness, that some other person will be substituted for Mr. Dewey, but it is not probable that Mr. Hobbs will remain. I have disagreed with Mr. Hobbs on some points and posed to be against him, but I think that I am his friend. I certainly have stood for nothing except what I thought was right, and personally I see nothing wrong n the skating affair.' There has been talk of secession, but at times, when excitement is running high, there are things said which have but little meaning. Eagerly Discussed. Other members of the board stated hat there was little likelihood of further trouble and little possibility of a schism the church. Meanwhile the misunderstanding is eagerly discussed by both churchmen and outsiders, and further developments are awaited with interest.

The fact that there was talk of post poning a league meeting to be held in Hersall in order to give the young people a chance to attend the carnival

BRITAIN MOURNS DEATH OF FIFE

Brother-in-Law of His Majesty Dies While In Egypt.

Never Recovered From Chill Contract. ed in Recent Shipwreck in Mediterranean.

Assouan, Upper Egypt, Jan. 29.-The

Duke of Fife died here at 6 o'clock this a duke at his wedding breakfast. He comes in—andi I am not so sure that and his family lived the simple life, when he married the princess that the usual precautions and ceremony affecting royalty should be dispensed with. The duke was for nine years vice-president of the Chartered Company of South Africa, but he resigned after the Jameson Raid. His estate consisted of about 249,300 acres. The title descends to his eldest daughter by special remainder, she becoming Duchess Alexandra of Fife. don't know how carnivals are con- while her mother will be called the
