PETROGRAD, April 4 (via London April 5)-12:55 a.m.-The following official communication was issued to-

"On the front to the west of the Niemen River (north Poland) the fighting is developing greatly in our favor. Our cavalry, on the road between Kalwarya and Sulalki, in the region of the village of Zelonaiabuda, after a stubborn fight Friday with German cavalry, which was supported by infantry, made a daring dash, sabreing many and capothers.

"In the Carpathians, on Friday, We gained a great success in the sector north of the roads leading to Bartfeld and also in the region between Mezolaborez and Lutoviska. "During the day we captured on the PARIS, April 4.-Hostilities between Servian troops and Bulgarian irregulars have broken out along the border. Official statement issued at Nish, as forwarded to the Havas Agency, says that the Bulgarians overwhelmed the Servian frontier guards and occupied Servian territory.

The statement follows: "Saturday night, at about 2 a.m., Bulgarian irregulars wearing military uniforms, attacked in large numbers our outpost at Valandovo. Our frontier guards, overwhelmed by superior num-bers, were forced to give ground and retreated in the direction of the railstation at Strumitsa. "At 5 a.m. the Bulgarians occupied

The Petit Journal says that Servia has protested to Bulgaria because of the invasion of Servian territory by a force described as Bulgarian irregu-lars. While couched in moderate terms the protest is said to request the arrest and imprisonment of the persons who participated in the raids.

The railway stationmaster at Strumitza reports that the line to Ghevgheli is now clear of the raiders, and apaprently has not been damaged.
Servian frontier guards who pursued the fleeing irregulars retook the two cannon which had been captured Thirty Bodies Found.

Six bodies were found in the railway station at Strumitsa. The extent of the losses inflicted upon the force is unknown, but is believed to be large. Thirty bodies were found, and the raiders themselves picked and buried a number of others. This is said to be the first incident of its kind since the beginning of the European war, and there is much speculation in Paris as to their exact sig-nificance. It is felt that the attitude of Bulgaria on this ocacsion will indicate what policy she intends to pur-
