any in the Mail-Box? Also if any of any in the Mail-Box: Also the Boxites have any slips of any kind would they mind sending them to me, and I will pay postage for some. My address is with Miss Grey. I am 16 and have four sisters and years old and have four sisters and four brothers, so there isn't very many of us is there? Well, I must fly out of the way, or the W P. B. will get this epistle. Wishing the Mail-Box every success. Inclosed find a mite.

The Last Block.

Dear Miss Grey,-Have started closed envelope.

Did I not see some mention of Please say in paper.

Dime inclosed for fund, also recip

Scripture Cake—Four and a half cups 1 Kings, iv., 22; ½ cup Judges, v., 25; 2

are willing to pay for it

Where Is Mrs. Hopeful?

Dear Miss Grey,-I am just coming me of your slips I will sure return

Ans.-Thank you for the recipes which have been put on file for future use; also for the "we mite."

for the S. C. H.

been away.

ing us the mite for our fund.

BLINKY.

PAGE OF INTEREST

AT CUPID'S CALL

"I think we'd better hurry," Dick suggestion that we cut across, and find the nearest railway station. It's only

This was not heroic. But Eve spoke

The moon came up, and the hille were

"We'll rest a little, shall we?" She glanced at her wrist watch. She could 'Dick, what's the time?" She held a slim, gloved hand up to him.

"It's nearly 8 o'clock." He looked a

"It's I who have made the mistake, confessed Miss Eve, with airy bright-

They started off. They walked an nath and down another. The moon was now obscured by clouds. They had to had walked for miles and miles, and were no houses here-no sign of human

It was towards 11 o'clock that Eve tree and moaned in tragic tones:

ever will my guardian say to me?

he wily little Eve-appeared to aban-lon hope. She sank down on a fallen

"Oh, Dick, I'm dead beat-and what all the neighborhood will talk and gos-

Because we're lost, Dick, lost-

Turn them only once. Bacon fat is ex-llent for frying green tomatoes.

"Jove! This is getting serious."

liberately misleading him.

wait until it reappeared.

ECONOMICS

ness.

Copyright, 1921, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

LXXXIV .- The Walk

Dick arrived at half-past two—a somewhat reluctant Dick, if the whole truth be told. He wasn't looking forward to this walk with Miss Eve Rohe particularly wanted to avoid. It held appy memories for him. It always Oh, here you are! That's fine!" Eve for a car-but, anyhow, we won't have slipped a possessive hand into the young such a long walk home!"

Things must be hurried. He was going away so soon. There was not any time to lose.

"Did you bring a car?" she added somewhat enter-"Did you bring a car?" she added tained. Eve could be superficially clever ught you wished to walk," said Dick, glancing surreptitiously at Eve's when she was amusing. Once or twice Dick's laugh rang out.

It was not perhaps a very cheery laugh, high heels and telling himself that it was quite on the cards she'd sprain her ankle. She was no country girl. Her but, oh, he wanted so much to forget th whole get-up was a perfect skit upon misery of last evening.

"Oh, never mind!" said Eve. She felt | lying in a romantic radiance. a little nettled, all the same. A four-mile walk until they reached the hill—a walk along the high roads without any at him. Things must be "speeded up" privacy, and the sustaining of a bright and sparkling conversation all the time tits very a wean task.

"Why don't you get Miss Drew 10 | with you?" inquired Dick as the light over how."

"Right over how." well, she would have to face the her- ly walk with you?" inquired Dick as the glibly.

two set off, side by side. He had a sneaking hope entirely against his better then Eve announced she was tired. ter judgment-that Miss Drew might have been persuaded by the other girl to glanced at her wrist watch. She could accompany them today. Which goes to see the figures of it in the moonlight. show that Dick was ignorant of women .

vices most of the time," said Eve, with trifle worried. "I seem to have lost my a little patronizing air. She definitely bearings." dismissed the subject of Miss Mary with |

I understand that everything is fixed up between them now. Only the wed-ding announcement to be sent out, or ding announcement to be sent out, or something of that sort. Amusing, isn't it?"

There were endless aggravating little tracks across the fields—which seemed to lead to nowhere. Dick could

Dick did not think it was amusing A great lump seemed to block his throat and make speech difficult.

Eve chattered on. Her plans were carefully laid. She began to feel imensely confident.

She kept up the bright and breezy role with a persistency that was praise-worthy, had her energy been applied to a more hopeful cause was uphill work with Dick

"He would be a hopeless bore to marry!" Miss Eve told herself repeat-edly, as each playful sally seemed to miss fire with her silent companion.

The country round about was pretty the summertime—but on this wintry afternoon it held at hilly, forlorn sort

GREEN TOMATO RECIPES.

Mail-Box

Good, better, best, never let it rest till your "good" is better, and your "better" best.—Franklin.

The Road to Nowhere.

Dear Miss Grey,—You are a useful asked for, person, and a busy one, but it's nice to sachets left. have a seat in the front row.

have lost sight of its little entertain-ing phases. I had a teacher friend of that name and type, but'I lost track of her-she Tip Sends Money. Dear Miss Grey,—Here I am again, but I am coming this time with my bit of money, it only being a ten-spot this time. I will send the rest when I get the quilt finished, for I am sure I have more than what the quilt will cost. I received the blocks from M. E. W. and Brown Eyes No. 2. You Sath did very well with the names. I E. W. and Brown Eyes No. 2. You both did very well with the names. I will keep your addresses, as I haven't time to write to all just now, so by this you will know that the blocks arrived O. K. this you will know that the blocks arrived O. K.

ing to make a block. I am mailing you I received a block with no name at I directions in full, so that you may go all on it, nor any name to say who sent it. I hope it was not sent as a finished block, as there are pleces of quite novel. The quilt is to be given to quite novel. The quilt is to be given to the person making the highest bid for it, as it cannot be raffled now. Send you name and address and the amount you am quite sure the sum realized from the quilt will be much larger than I

Dear Miss Grey,—I saw by the Mail-Box that Fuzz Wuzz had returned; also she said she was going to write me would do without the 'Tiser, with its again. That was three or four weeks ago, but up to the time of writing this I have not heard from her. Hurry up, one heard from Mrs. Hopeful? I wrote Fuzz Wuzz, as I am waiting for your letter. What kind of flower seeds have you on hand, as I would like to get some? Please excuse scribble, as I am buds last winter, and have not heard in a hurry to get to the Fair.

from her yet, either. And Tiger Lily, will you please write me a letter and tell me how to cook those garden Ans .- The following is a list of the reached no point Dick recognized. There seeds on hand: Hollyhock, poppy, cos- huckleberries. When anything burns in pots or saucepans, try putting ammonia and water and boil for a while on top of stove. To clean windows put a little mos, phlox, balsam, petunia, sweet william, zinhia and marigold.

Seeds, Seeds

Dear Friend,—I am mailing a quantity coal oil in water and no soap and winof marigold seeds, also poppies, phlox, dows will polish easier. Geranium, if balsams, petunias and sweet williams, you will be kind enough to send me aid of the S. C. H. fund. Will have so another supply later of cosmos, asters and a few others. I will call again in a send you roots of garden flowers, which-week or two. Hoping this will add a mite to the fund, I am, some slips. My address is with Miss mite to the fund, I am, HAPPY HOOLIGAN.

Grey. Well, I must run away now. Please find a wee mite for the S. C. H.. Ans.-The seeds arrived this morn-say that I had seventeen names, and I have forwarded them on to Tip, and For green tomato pickle add three-quarters of a cupful of salt to four $1.75. Yours truly am sending you a postoffice order for heat to boiling point, add tomatoes, four sliced green peppers, and two chopped onions. Boil a quarter of an hour and onions. Boil a quarter of an hour and only a continuous street or an earther area.

MAY RESULT IN CABINET MEETING

Latest Message of Sinn Fein Leader Causes Considerable Comment.

Ans.—Am mailing you the words you asked for, Blinky, but there are no sachets left. Thank you also for send-LONDON, Sept. 20.-Mr. Lloyd George's reply to Eamonn de Valera will likely be delayed until after a conference with the ministers at Gairloch block for hospital quilt this morning. Should have done it sooner, but have Thursday, and it seems certain that there will be no Irish peace conference at Inverness, for, according to the Please send me address of Tip in inlatest reports, the prime minister has decided to return to London at the end guessing contest of names on quilt? of the week if his health is sufficiently restored, in which case the next forma cabinet council will be held in Lon

Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, left today for Gairloch, in-dicating that Ireland would be the subject of the conference on Thursday.

May Delay Reply. of Mr. de Valera's opinions as his latest telegram. All considered, it is not unlikely that the prime minister will even delay his reply until the whole cabinet has met here. The Parliament of North Ireland met today, the date originally proposed for the Inverness conference, and the speech of Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, showed that Ulster is no better disposed toward the peace conference. ister has provoked such divergent opinions as his latest telegram. All considered, it is not unlikely that the ter disposed toward the peace confer-

Election Rumors.

The decision of Mr. Lloyd George not to go to Washington has revived gossip of a coming general election, the idea being that there are now only two alternatives—a peace conference, or an appeal to the country, either of or an appeal to the country, either of which, since the conference has been so greatly delayed, would necessitate the prime minister's presence in England in November. The Government is likely to find itself surrounded with a tackle when he was struck flush on to thank you for the clippings re the patterns and addresses. I am writing is likely to find itself surrounded with difficulties, not only in the shape of unemployment, the anti-waste campaign and similar matters at home.

The reparations question with Germany, involving possible friction with France, combined with the continued depreciation of the mark, may necessitate further meetings of the suprementations of the suprementations of the suprementation of the New difficulties with Russia seem to be brewing, all of which may require the prime minister's personal attention, and incline him to secure a eral manager, J. W. H. new mandate from the country on question on which he might hope to secure a certain majority. Latest reports from Gairloch tonight say that a ministerial conference may be held tomorrow, and there are also reports that Mr. de Valera has ex-pressed willingness to withdraw his claim that the Irish delegates must go into the conference as representatives of an independent and sovereign state.

QUESTIONS VALERA'S RIGHT. BELFAST, Sept. 20 .- During the parliament session today, Representative Scote questioned Eamonn de Vaera's right to membership in the Ul-Attention! Lozana.

Dear Miss Grey.—May I drop in for that he was born of alien parentage a wee chat this fine sunny morning?

British subject. (In the Irish elections

Meads and Norman Jones, all of To-I saw in the paper where Lozana in May Mr. de Valera was elected a wants to know whether vinegar, mus-wants to know whether vinegar, mus-member of both the northern and mobile in which the tard, salt and sugar has to be boiled, southern parliaments, but he did not driven by Barnes. Mixture requires no boiling, just mix one gallon vinegar, one cup sugar, one cup mustard all tocup sugar, one cup mustard all tocup sugar, one cup mustard all together, and it is ready for cucumbers. You can drop them in each day until elected to this body.)

You can drop them in each day until elected to this body.)

You can drop them in each day until elected to this body.)

The speaker replied that Mr. de to take such time you put in cucumbers. They are good done this way.

Say, Busy Hands, I certainly did smile when I saw you had some nice house plants for me. I am inclosing 10 cents for postage on them. Will you send my address and money in closed to Busy Hands. Miss Grey?

Thanking you for your kindness. I will send double mit next time for the suggested regarding Mr. described to this body.)

of the other Sinn Fein candidates women were taken to the hospital. Miss Murphy is suffering from a badly injured head and probable internal injuries; Miss Meads from a broken collarbone and head injuries, and Jones from head injuries. Was unconscious when conveyed to the hospital.

Miss Murphy is suffering from a badly injured head and probable internal injuries; Miss Meads from a broken collarbone and head injuries. Was unconscious when conveyed to the hospital.

Miss Murphy is suffering from a badly injured head and probable internal injuries; Miss Meads from a broken collarbone and head injuries.

I hardly devolved upon the Ulster Parliament for a period of a bout three years, and as that parliament for a period of a bout three years, and as that parliament for a period of a bout three years, and as that parliament for a period of a bout three years, and as that parliament for a period of a bout three years, and as that parliament for a period of a bout three years, and as that parliament for a period of a brown three years and as that parliament for a period of a bout three years, and as that parliament for a period of a parly was directed to the badly injured head and probable in ternal injuries. Miss Meads from a brown collarbone and head injuries.

I have devolved upon the Ulster Parliament for a period of and your probable in ternal injuries. Miss Murphy is sufferi

WOMEN VALERA'S REPLY Bandits Like Murrells Robbed Car Early Today EXPLANATION OF

> twelve passengers with a gun while [Special to The Advertiser.] WINDSOR, Sept. 21 .- Shortly after 1 the other WINDSOR, Sept. 21.—Shortly after 11 the other went through the particle of the went through the particle of the other went through the particle of the other went through through the other went through the other went through the other went through the o whose discription exactly answers that of the Murrell brothers who recently broke jail at London, held up the Te-left the car hurriedly and made off in cumseh electric car at Lauzon road, the dark. The car was rushed to Tecumseh and eight miles from here. One man covered the car crew and an alarm given

MADE HUGE PRISONER | UNION OF SYNODS IS RIDE IN BAGGAGE CAR UNDER CONSIDERATION

Is Taken To the Penitentiary.

[Special to The Advertiser.] WOODSTOCK, Sept. 20.—Charles R. Veale of Springford, who confessed to firing the house on the farm of Elli Barnim and was sentenced to five years May Delay Reply.

None of Mr. de Valera's previous in Kingston, was today removed to the pententiary by Sheriff McGhee. Vealer bentientary by Sheriff McGhee. Vealer has provoked such divergent is a man weighing over 250 pounds, and when the party arrived at the station

Seventeen cents was the highest bid on the local cheese board today when 1,285 boxes of cheese were boarded. Bid-

The annual meeting of the Oxfore Cobalt Mines, Limited, was held here Shareholders, representing over $294,000 were present. It was unanimously cided to acquire three mines claims adjacent to the original property, giv-ing the company a total holding now of 100 acres. The new officers elected are: President, A. H. Wilson; vice-president, J. R. Shaw; secretary, Geo. F. Mahon; treasurer, E. A. Rea; genral manager, J. W. Russell,

EXPRESS HITS AUTO AT TORONTO CROSSING

William Barnes Killed and Three Companions Seriously Hurt.

TORONTO, Sept. 20.-William D. Barnes was instantly killed and Miss alien parentage Dora Murphy, aged 19, Miss Vera ronto, were injured when the autoand mobile in which they were riding, district of the Methodist Church met

The sea made while it will be seen and while

Charles Veale of Springford Committee Is Appointed To Take Matter Up Next Tuesday.

> Moir of Woodbridge was elected moder- hostile to Great Britain. An explan ator of the Toronto Presbytery at to- fully the alleged hostile acts compla day's meeting in succession to Rev. ed of. Most of them were in Afghan Dr. J. M. Duncan.
>
> The proposed union of the synods of Toronto and Kingston and of London Toronto and Ringston and of Bolidon The note which was written by the and Hamilton was discussed, and a committee consisting of Rev. Dr. G. C. Pidgeon, Rev. Dr. Duncan, the moderator, and the clerk, Rev. R. C. Tibb was appropried to bring the questions. Fibb, was appointed to bring the ques- ing under allocation. It was decided to organize in all con- urging gregations an "Every-Person Canvass" about the end of November for congregational maintenance on the basis of the new minimum stipend and for the 1922 budget.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS SET BIG PRECEDENT

Dispute Between Poland and Lithuania Will Be Reopened.

GENEVA. Sept. 20 .- The council of the League of Nations established an important precedent this morning when it decided to refer to the assembly of the possesses indisputable evidence the eague the dispute between Poland and Lithuania concerning Vilna, considered fortnight ago to have been settled, but reopened because of the attitude of the contending parties.

WINDSOR DISTRICT TO HAVE HIGHEST OBJECTIVE Decides On 25 Per Cent Increase For Missionary

Offerings.

[Special to The Advertiser.] HARROW, Sept. 20 .- The Windso was struck by a here yesterday, when nearly 200 delegates from the churches of Essex and one was present, and a letter of sympathy was directed to be sent to Rev. J. H. Johnston in the loss of his son Assessments were levied on the differ-At noon the Harrow women banduetted the delegates, and during Crews of Wind-of his trip to

BRITAIN DEMANDS

Serious Breaches of Faith in Central Asia Are Charged.

AGREEMENT VIOLATED

Government Has Evidence of Intrigue With Indian Revolutionaries.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Britisl Government has dispatched a strongly worded note to Moscow calling the tention of the Soviet Government alleged serious breaches of faith volved in the pursuance by the Ru sians throughout Central Asia and A TORONTO, Sept. 20.-Rev. John A. ghanistan of a campaign of intrig tion is demanded. The note detail istan.

The note which was written by th n before the meeting of the former dry at Orillia on Tuesday, Septembry at Orillia on Tuesday, Septembry propaganda, and enumerates the a on the state of th The presbytery accepted the allocation of $258,750 as its share of the 1922 budget. This amount represents an increase of $28,750 over the 1923 budget by M. Stalin, president of the Third Interpretable. section of the Third International the eastern secretariat to d

It is declared in the note that th British Government has evidence entinued intrigue with Indian revo tionaries in Persia, some of wh were invited to Moscow last June discuss the best means of bringing about a revolution in India, and all refers to the activities of Rothstei the Bussian representative at Tehera who is declared to be importing larg sums and known to be subsidizing Per sian newspapers to carry on an ant British campaign.

It complains that the soviets are sur porting the Turkish Nationalists. The gravest charge pertains to the Russo-Afghan treaty and M. Tchnit cherin's insistence upon a clause this treaty providing for the openin of consulates in Eastern Afghanistan Strong Evidence, Soviet Government as presenters of propaganda and dence also of the activities of Jam Pasha, sent to Afghanistan by the sou with funds, arms and ammunition. The British foreign secretary asi for definite assurance that these a consulates are regarded by t tivities, constituting breaches of

PRINCE OF WALES IS NOT COMING TO CANADA

Will Return Through Suez Canal

Way Home From India. LONDON, Sept. 20.-(By Canadian Press.)-The Prince of Wales will no visit Canada on his return journey fro India as he will follow the same rout omeward as on his outward voyage via the Suez Canal.

announcement which states rangements for the prince's tour &

BY C. M. PAYNE

IT AINT A RUBBER NONSENSE. DONT TURN THE LOOKIT. EVEN IF WRONG. PLANT! YOU'VE BEEN WHAT DO LITTLE FELLAH DOWN NOT A 415 THAT WAY, MAW. YOU KNOW DEDUCTIONS SHOULD FOOLED ALL SINGLE HE'S MAKING THIS ABOUT IT T3E A STATEMENT IN ALL LEAF TIME INTERESTING MOULD SERIOUSNESS STRETCH (ma) DEDUCTIONS

pack in an earthen crock.

MRS. ELIZABETH KENT, MacDONALD COLLEGE.

Another recipe for green tomato thin a peck of green tomatoes and four large white onions, sprinkle alternate layers with a cupful of salt and let quarts of chopped green tomatoes. Let stand over night and drain. Then add two teaspoonfuls of pepper, three each of mustard, cinnamon, allspice, and one time cloves to two quarts of cider vinegar, water for the hands, and behind the cars, and here and there. I am a believer in cleanliness rather than disinfectants or antiseptics. I even practice and advocate daily air baths, because the air is nature's greatest cleanser, and, besides, the air feels fine, summer or winter. fine, summer or winter. But it does not feel good to plunge into a cold water bath immediately after awakening, and I have a suspicion that the plunge wastes more energy than it conserves or builds, in courage by plunging into cold water on rising in the morning, why not show your self-discipline by forcing your lazy body through a few vigorous your lazy body through a few vigorous exercise while you enjoy your morning air bath in your room? Of the two tests of courage, in my judgment, it tests of courage, in my judgment, it tests of courage to go through to 5. (Miss B. O. M.) requires greater courage to go through lar stunt of exercise each on the theory. I suppose, that or news-stand, to purchase a maga-Now, I am a believer in soap and water for the hands, and behind the

I am anxious to learn just what you nean by the term coddling. Ans.—Wearing any clothing in excess of what comfort or custom requires. Heating living quarters one degree higher than comfort demands.

Shooting Implements. I have accepted a position as nurse most cases.

Instead of showing your nerve or in the proper way. The baby, aged 2 naid, and I would like to care for them still wears a woolen hand. I wanted t remove it in the very hot weather, but the mother would not let me. I would ANSWERS-Study Dr. Griffith's "Care of the Baby," published by W. B. the regular stunt of exercise each morning than it does to jump into a cool bath and jump out again and poilsh your shivering hide with a poilsh your shivering hide with a warm towel. Leave that for your swimming days. Take your condi-the nearest railway station. It's only three miles off—we easily can find it. Then we can get a train—or telephone for a car—but, anyhow, we won't have such a long walk home!"

Cynthia Grey's

I should like to get into touch with a lady ex-teacher whose last name is (or was) Smillie—someone who is not long enough away from the work to have lost sight of the long that the long way is the long that long the l ust seemed to melt into space.

It would be curiosly interesting to -for a certain length of time. She did correspond with one of the same name; not "wear" well, but there were periods it would almost be as if I had found her.

She was one of the kind that I care to remember.

THE ROAD TO NOWHERE.

THE ROAD TO NOWHERE.

"Heavenly, isn't it?" breathed Eve, linging close to Dick and smiling up > silk in it, but no names on it. I saw by the paper that Oakdake > was sending a block. TIP.

> Ans.—How splendid of you to collect such a large sum of money, Tip. I first anticipated. Attention, Fuzz Wuzz. not guess that Eve knew the whole neighborhood like a book-and was de-Every now and then she insisted on "rest." And time flew by. Up one ng. Thank you very much for them, also for offering to send more. Bobbie's Mother Helps.

HUROKI.

BOBBIE'S MOTHER Where will I send my number of names I guess? Will send mite next Guesses of No Value. Dear Miss Grey,—I am sending in some guesses for the quilt. I will send of what I have when the quilt is fin-

S'MATTER, POP?-The Test for , Rubber. -