

The ADVERTISER'S PICTORIAL PAGE

The girl of to-day is fast deserting the cat and dog for her pet. Viola Dana is seen feeding a peacock, which she has welcomed to her Los Angeles home.

This colored boy displayed his superiority in knuckling down in the marble championship in New York. He won the right to represent the city in the national marble championship in Atlantic City.

Lord Methuen unveiled a war memorial at Whitley's, a famous London store. He is seen standing behind the flag.

Ty Cobb, hard hitting manager of the Detroit baseball team, met Anita Stewart, celebrated screen star, on a vacation at Atlantic City.

Six months ago Anita de Alme was a concert singer in New York. Now she wants to study for opera and to achieve her goal she is acting as a stewardess on board a trans-Atlantic liner.

Mme. Valentine de Takine, famed as the "muse" of Russian styles, is making a sensation in the fashion world.

Li Yuan-Hung, president of the Chinese republic, who is being held a prisoner aboard his special train at Tien-Tsin, following his flight from the capital at Peking.

General Sir Edward Bullfinch making an informal inspection during the King's levee at St. James' Palace.

The annual occasion of "Trooping the Colors" was held on the occasion of His Majesty's 58th birthday. Behind the King are the Prince of Wales and the Crown Prince of Sweden.

This new innovation, chair car de luxe, is the very latest feature in motor bus construction. It is made entirely of steel, fashioned after the regular Pullman car.

Photo shows the Chinese smuggler and rum runner on which four of the crew and five celestials were slain following a battle off Sandy Hook last week. The fifteen Chinese survivors told a story of attempted robbery and subsequent bloodshed.

Miss Mildred Reardon, movie actress, left recently for abroad to star in a new picture.

The novel characteristic of this newest contribution of safety in coal mines, is that it not only provided adequate means of illumination, but that it gives an audible indication when there is more than two per cent. of fire damp in the working place.

Mlle. Valerie Martins, a continental exponent of "songs at the piano" idea. She has had her hands insured for $100,000.

A four-in-hand seen on the road to Epsom on Derby day.

Premier Stamboulisky of Bulgaria, whose government was recently overthrown by revolutionists in Sofia. The premier himself was later killed in a fight between his escort and peasants.