How Wise Ones Have It Figured

Associated Press Despatch. Associated Press Despatch.

New York, July 3.—The convention wise men had the Democratic presidential nomination strategy all neatly laid out this morning.

They based their findings on the following facts: following facts:

(1) Numerous leaders including Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi and William Jennings Bryan visited McAdoo headquarters yesterday.

(2) In the afternoon Bryan made a speech for McA had little or no effect. speech for McAdoo, which (3) At the evening session Mc Adoo rolled up to over 500 votes while the Smith cohorts held fairly firm. They deduce from these facts,

(1) That political leaders told McAdoo that they could not wait (2) That consequently Mr. Bryan made his speech in an attempt to stampede the convention.

(3) That McAdoo managers made an extraordinary effort to hold the interest of leaders at the night session by calling on reserve strength.

reserve strength. (4) That Smith tacticians were content to hold their own, and that they will call out their strength today and probably repeat the McAdoo manoeuvre, with Franklin Roosevelt, Smith's campaign manager, making a stampede speech from the floor.
