Three horses strayed onto the Grand Trunk bridge crossing the Thames at the Coves early yesterday, and the fact might but for the fortunate discovery of the animals have derailed the freight train which came along while the horses were floundering on the trestles in an effort to get across. The train was brought to a standstill before reaching the bridge. Two of the horses were found to have had their legs broken, and had to be kill-The incident delayed the eastbound express due a little later.

Linen Bargains

We have just received several cases of choice New Linens. including some manufacturers' seconds in Table Cloths, Napkins and Towels, which have been marked at exceptionally low prices to bring purchasers here in great numbers.

Towels, at 10c, 12½c and 15c Each.

The ten-cent line is of fine Damask, slightly imperfect, but a great bargain. The 121/2c line is a better grade Damask, with assorted borders. The 15c line is made up of Huckabacks and Damasks, and are worth double what we are asking. To prove this secretion—see them. You know what you have paid for towels at other times.

Napkins, at 60c, 75c and $1.50 Dozen.

These are also slightly imperfect goods, but even so, these prices are simply tempting. The $1.50 line are Damask Table Cloths, at $1.50, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50 and $3.00.

Bleached Tabling, at 50c, 65c and 75c Yard. We are offering great values in above goods—62-inch at 50c yard, three new patterns; 68-inch at 65c yard; 69-inch at 75c yard, five exquisite patterns. Other equally good bargains of better quality at $1.00, $1.20 and $1.25

Unbleached Table Damask, at 25c, 30c, 40c, 45c and 50c Yard.

Mercerized Linen Table Covers, 65c, 75c. $1.00, $1.50 and $1.75. We still have a few of those handsome Table Covers, which are not silk, but have all the appearance of it. The size you want and the color may be here; if so, you can buy at above prices. Be early.

IN LIVE STOCK Entries for the Western Fair Already Ahead of Last Year.

Arrangements for the Great Exhibition Are Proceeding Most Satisfactorily-Grounds and Buildings in Good Shape.

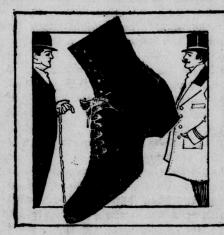

Secretary Nelles and staff at the Western Fair offices are experiencing a great rush of business. Every day brings fresh evidence that the Western Fair of 1900 will be a magnificent success-probably the greatest that has been. No disappointing features whatever have cropped up. The very opposite is the fact in all departments. Already some exhibits are being put in place. Even the agricultural building, which at Toronto is being largely used as a dining hall, because of a boycott of agricultural kills for the mere sake of killing. For implement makers, will here be filled one being to take the life of another up. Live stock entries are already great feature of the oldest show of them all continue to pour in. Chairman J. H. Brown is getting the ground and buildings into apple-pie order: a number of material improve-

Chinese Military Precepts. From the London Globe. The following precepts have been discovered in a manual issued in one of the military colleges in China:-

"A wise General plays sweet music before going into battle, in order to lull his enemies into a deep sleep." "A good commander should insist upon his men practicing with the bow to shoot backward as they ride on their horses, and should at times lead in the exercise himself." in the exercise "No General should go to war without taking with him an extra red umbrella and an extra umbrella bearer.'
