

Our Furniture and House
Furnishing Sale Starts
Monday

DAVID SPENCER, LIMITED.

Our Furniture and House
Furnishing Sale Starts
Monday

Only Three Days Remain in Which to Take Advantage of July Sale Bargains

The Wind-Up Days Offer Many Stirring Economies

An Important Clearance of Ladies' Pongee and Rajah Silk Costumes, Today.
Reg. Values to $42 for $17.50

Beautifully-Tailored Silk Costumes are being placed on sale today at clearance prices. These are in a number of pretty shades, and are made in the two-piece effect—coat and skirt. Today, you may choose any of these at less than half price—the usual price being $42, to clear out, at $17.50. They are stylishly made, and are attractive in the extreme. Second Floor.

Ladies' Muslin Dresses to Clear Today
at $2.75. Values to $6

Today, you are offered a splendid opportunity to get a Fine White Muslin or Colored Linen or Zephyr Gingham Dress at less than half their usual value. They are in princess and other predominating styles, daintily made, and exceptional value—in fact these were selling at $6, but, to make a sure clearance, Thursday, we have reduced them to $2.75

Ladies' Underskirts,
Special, Today at $1.00

A very special line of Women's Underskirts go on sale today. These have a very deep flounce of embroidery and lace. Today $1.00

Girls' and Children's
Sun Hats and Bonnets,
50c and $1.00

You can procure a splendid Sun Hat or Bonnet for the little one or miss here tomorrow at a considerable saving. All in white, lace and embroidered effects at 50c and $1.00

A Clearance of Ladies' Neckwear
for Today at 25c

An exceptionally fine line of Ladies' Neckwear is being placed on sale tomorrow, consisting of Dutch Collars, made of spotted lawn, with wide lace edge. These are in white only, and will clear out quick at this price. Thursday 25c

Men's Tweed and Worsted Suits,
Reg. $15, to Clear at $7.75

Any man desirous of wearing a good, sensible, serviceable and stylish suit, and who has an eye towards making a saving should attend this clean-up sale of these suits. Today we mean to make these fine suits move fast by placing them at a ridiculously low figure. They are in all new shades and patterns, and were marked to sell at $15. Clean-up Sale Today at $7.75

July Sale Wind-Up Prices on Men's Straw Hats. Values to $1.50 to Clear, Tomorrow, at 25c

Stop just a moment and think what a tremendous saving can be made here Thursday in Men's Straw Hats. Don't imagine that there is anything wrong with them, for there is not, only we mean to clear them out, and in order to do so have made a tremendous reduction. They are in Sailor and Boater styles. Values to $1.50. Tomorrow 25c

Today Will Be a Record
Selling Day in the Silk Dept.

With only 3 days more to go in July Sale, we are anxious to clean up a few odd lines which have been broken during this sale. In order to do so we haven't considered the usual selling price. Included in the line are—
Foulards, Shot Silks, Geisha Canton Silk, Liberty Silk, Sausage Crepe, Taffeta, Colored Pongee, 36-in. Natural Pongee. Regular up to 75c and $1.00. Today 35c
See Government Street Windows
100 yards Fancy Shot Silk, in check and stripe. Regular value $2.00. Today 75c

If You Have not Attended
This Shoe Sale Yet, Do So
Tomorrow. Men's $6.00

Shoes for $2.95

It will pay every man handsomely to attend this Shoe Sale tomorrow. These are in reality the best bargains we have offered during the sale. They are all well known and reliable makes, stylish and serviceable. If you don't need any for present use, it will pay you to purchase for future needs. Regular $6.00 values. Tomorrow. $2.95

Boys' Clothing at July Sale Wind-Up
Prices

All mothers should make it a point of attending the last days of this event, for many lines are being offered at a tremendous reduction.

Boys' Suits, Reg. $7.00 to $8.50
for $5.50

Boys' Norfolk Suits, made of fancy tweeds and worsteds. These are splendidly made suits, stylish and snappy. Usually these were being sold at $7.00 to $8.50. Wind-up July Sale Price $5.50

Also a large assortment of Boys' Norfolk Suits. Regular $3.50 to $4.50, for $2.50

Boys' Three-piece Suits in tweeds and fancy mixtures, in single and double-breasted styles. Values to $8.75, for $5.75

10 Doz. Boys' Tams, Reg. 25c
and 35c, Today, 15c

10 Dozen Boys' Washing Tams, in white and blue, go on sale today at an exceptionally interesting saving. These were selling at 25c and 35c. This morning they are priced to clear at 15c

Boys' Blue Stripe Overalls. Regular 25c, for 15c

Boys' Rompers. Regular 35c values, in blue and white check gingham. Today 25c

A Wind-Up Clearance of Shirts for Boys at Half Price and Less

Boys' Outing Mesh Shirts, in white. Specially good quality. Just the kind for present use. These were regularly selling at 75c. To clear-out tomorrow at 25c
Also a fine line of Boys' Negligee Print Shirts, which we usually sold for 50c. To go tomorrow at 25c

The Greatest Sale of Remnants of the Season

Silks, Dress Goods, Ribbons, Muslins, Embroidery, Staples, Laces and in Fact Every

Line Down Our Dress Goods Side to Go at Less Than Half Price

Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be the greatest remnant days of the season. We intend to clear out every oddment we have in Silk, Dresses, Ribbons, Laces, Embroidery, Muslins, Cotton Towelings, Prints, Flannelette, Sheetings, etc. With these offerings we anticipate a tremendous saving, for it is worthy the attention of every person wishing to make a substantial saving on any of the above lines.

VOL. L. NO. 375.

CAUGHT AFTER LONG PURSUIT

Joseph Wendling, Alleged Murderer of Alma Kellner in Louisville, Captured by Detective in San Francisco.

CHASE EXTENDED
OVER 11,000 MILES

Fugitive Confesses to Identity
But Denies All Connection
With Murder of Little Louisville Girl.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—Dragged from beneath a sink in a Third street lodging house, where he had been hiding for twenty-four hours, Jos. A. Wendling, accused of the murder of little Alma Kellner in Louisville, Ky., was arrested today by detectives of the local police department. Wendling admitted his identity, but protested his innocence of the crime.

A few hours after the arrest Detective Captain Carney, of Louisville, arrived to learn that his 11,000-mile search for Wendling had been crowned with success. It was a telegraphed tip from the Kentucky detective which led to the arrest. In his pursuit of Wendling, Carney many times lost the trail, but the secret of the whereabouts of his quarry always lay with Corn Muenz, a milliner of Hume, Mo. It was from Hume that Carney learned the information that led to the arrest.

Mrs. Muenz met Wendling at the home of her aunt in Houston, Texas, and before she returned to Hume she was engaged to the young Frenchman, who dazed the aunt with tales of wealth in France which would come to him with the death of his aged father. Before Mrs. Muenz left Houston she grew so close to Wendling and after her return to Hume she broke her engagement. When Carney received the clue that Wendling was working in Houston, the detective began his long search which led him to every county seat in Texas.

At Houston he found that Wendling had obtained a position on a ranch twenty-two miles from San Antonio. A trip to the ranch proved fruitless, as the hunted man had fled. Here Carney lost the trail. He returned to Houston, he learned that his prey was in Los Angeles. The detective's trip to Los Angeles proved unavailing, and he returned to San Antonio, where he found that Henry Plear, a friend of Wendling, had received a postal picture card from the fugitive. It was postmarked Rio Vista. Carney came to this city because he had the assistance of the local detective bureau. Accompanied by Detective Conlin, he went to Rio Vista to find that the man had disappeared again.

Traced again to San Francisco. The trail again became so cold that Carney determined to visit Mrs. Muenz in Hume. He reached there just in time to prevent the destruction of a postal which gave the address of Wendling in Vallejo, Cal. When the address was traced to Vallejo, Detective Burke was sent to Vallejo. In the possession of Alice Miller, with whom Wendling had been living, he found the fugitive's photograph and a bit of burglar's loot. A further search led to the discovery of many articles which had been taken from the residence of Thomas Saunders, which had been robbed three times, and it was the house formerly occupied by Chas. W. Hildmann, for whom Wendling worked as a gardener.

Wendling was traced to this city, but the detectives were thrown off the track by a strange double, who left a suit case in a deserted house. The death at his own hands of this man, two days ago again left the detectives without a lead, but they caught it again when Captain of Detectives Wall received a tip on Thursday night that the fugitive was in a Third street rooming house. The number given proved to be a vacant lot. Next door, however, was a lodging house. The owner said that a man answering Wendling's description had been there, but had left a few days before. The detectives were sceptical, and after watching the house for 24 hours, this morning made a search. They found Wendling beneath the sink of a washroom.

On the arrival of the detectives with Wendling at the city prison, Chief of Police Martin and District Attorney Fickert were summoned. With the detectives these two officials remained closeted with the prisoner for one hour. He protested his innocence of the Kellner murder, declaring that he knew nothing of it until he read of the finding of the body. Wendling said he had adopted the name of his mother to avoid his brother-in-law, Louis Arnold, who had pursued him from France to make his marry Madeline Arnold. Wendling told Captain Carney that he would not resist extradition, but he said he would start for home with his planner as soon as he was rested from his long chase.

Carney claims to have ended today one of the longest and most expensive man hunts of modern times. Descriptions of Wendling were sent to every American consular representative in the world, and to every postmaster in France and Germany. Since June 13th the expense of Captain Carney have averaged $100 daily.

His Alleged Crime
LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 26.—Alma Kellner, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kellner, and niece of Frank Fuhr, millionaire brewer, disappeared from her home in this