Abbie Wood Beats Fred Cameron.

Amherst Crack Loses by Ten Yards—Montreal Champion Won in Sensational Sprint—Time for Ten Miles Was 55.42—Another Match Soon

Amherst, N. S., Sept. 24.—Amherst is in mourning tonight; its peerless winner, Fred S. Cameron, went down to defeat in his first professional race against Abbie Wood of Montreal.

The race was witnessed by fully 2,000 people, and was uneventful throughout. Wood had the pole but before the lap was finished Cameron took the lead and the first two miles and a half was reeled off in quick order.

Wood then forged to front and Cameron allowed him to set the pace until five miles were reached. Wood took his time the five miles being run in 27.18.

For the last five miles Cameron led with Wood close on his heels. Lap after lap was run off in this order. In only one instance did Cameron make one of his spurts and Wood responded freely. The runners were so evenly matched that the spectators saw that both were depending on the finish sprint.

In the final Cameron led the three-quarters of the lap when Wood put on a burst of speed, never equalled on the Ramblers' grounds, and breasted the lap about ten yards ahead of the Amherst champion.

That Cameron's supporters were disappointed in putting it mildly, but although he has been defeated they have still faith in him. They realize that Wood is probably the best man in Canada, but they claim that his wide experience in running enabled him to out-general Cameron and that the latter made a mistake in allowing the Montreal man to set the pace in the earlier portion of the race.

Both men finished fresh and were in condition to go another ten miles. Another race between the two rivals will take place on the Ramblers' ground within a fortnight and a third race has been arranged to be held in Montreal in the near future.

Wood is a fine type of athlete and made a host of friends here. The time for the race was 55.42. On the same track last fall Cameron defeated Fowler in 54.46.

New Glasgow, Sept. 29.—Slowly through the streets of his native town, which mourns the death of its distinguished son, the body of the late Duncan C. Fraser, Lieut. Governor of Nova Scotia, was conveyed this afternoon to its last resting place in the family lot at Riverside cemetery.

New Glasgow mourns deeply for the departed governor and the long procession through the streets this afternoon will long be remembered by those who thronged the route of the cortege. The funeral of Governor Fraser was the largest ever seen in New Glasgow, representative of the masses as well as the classes. In the cortege were men from every branch of life. As early as yesterday distinguished men of the province arrived in New Glasgow to pay their last respects to the dead governor.

The residence of the late Harvey Graham, brother-in-law of Governor Fraser, where the body lay, was the centre of the thoughts of New Glasgow citizens and visitors, and hundreds of friends viewed the body that lay encased in the simple black coffin in the large drawing room.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. W. McMillan, of St. Matthew's church, Halifax, assisted by the Rev. Ernest Forbes, New Glasgow; Rev. Dr. Poole, and Rev. E. A. McCurdy.

Immediately after the service those who wished to see the governor's face passed through the drawing room to the coffin. When the hearse having the body of Governor Fraser had passed the top of Provost street, the carriages in the procession had not all left the Harvey Graham residence, a quarter of a mile distant. In the procession were twenty-five clergymen, representing the various churches and denominations of the province, followed by representatives of the grand lodge of Free Masons of Nova Scotia. Following the Masons were members of the local legislature. The dominion parliament was represented by William Chisholm, M. P., Antigonish; Senator Ross, Halifax; Senator McSweeney, Moncton, and D. D. MacKenzie. Following were the judges of the supreme court, including Chief Justice Townsend, ex-Chief Justice Sir Robert Wetherbee, Judge Drysdale and Judge Meagher of the county court.
