JAMES LUMBERS. Wholesale Grocer, R. Cochran received the following from Henry Allen & Co. of New York: A good bank statement came out to-day and gave something of a spurt. There were realizations. Talk is heard all over the street about the cessation of gold shipments, but this is guess work mostly. The main thing in the stock market now is the fact that there is nothing like public interest manifested in any part of it. Brokers' offices are empty, and outside the stock exchange or room tradger of the stock is indicative of something else than a foundation of for a bull boom. Business Embarrassments.
C. Landreville, hatter, of Ottawa, has assigned and McLaughlin & Reynolds, general storekeepers of Manitowaning, have done likewise.
George A. Rosebach, proprietor of the Hess Bros. & Co. chair and furniture factory of Toronto and Listowel, has not yet emerged from the financial difficulties which have been threatening him for some time. Owing to the delay in paying the $50,000 insurance on the Listowel factory, destroyed by fire some months ago, the stock in the King-street store, estimated to be worth $9000, was sold to John Hodgins for about half that sum. This alarmed the creditors and they have put in writs to the amount of $3900. To execute these the sheriff is now in charge.
