

CHAPTER XII.

	PAGE
Canada roused—Brock's counter-proclamation—Disaffection in the Western District—Skirmish at the Aux Canard —American defeat at Brownstown—Further skirmishing—Tecumseh—British reverse at the River Raisin—Major-General Sheaffe appointed on the staff—Hull's inactivity—Brock opens Legislature at York—Disaffection in the Assembly—Brock's stirring speech—Patriotic Address of the Legislative Assembly	129

CHAPTER XIII.

Hull's inglorious retreat—Brock calls on the Militia—Prompt response—Sets out for Detroit—George Ryerson—Flank companies of Norfolk Militia formed—Embarkation at Long Point—Expedition reaches Amherstburgh—Letter of Attorney-General Macdonell—Brock meets Tecumseh—Council with Indian chiefs—Brock summons Hull to surrender—Capture of Detroit	147
--	-----

CHAPTER XIV.

Indian allies of the British—Governor Simcoe and Brant—Tecumseh—Other noted Indian warriors—St. Clair's defeat at Miami—Treaty of Greenville—Tecumseh's speech to the Osages—Council at Vincennes—Battle of Tippecanoe—Fort Meigs—Proctor evacuates Fort Malden—British defeat at Moraviantown—Death of Tecumseh	166
--	-----

CHAPTER XV.

Brock congratulated on capture of Detroit—The hero of the hour—Banner presented to the 3rd York Militia—Brock visits Kingston—Connecticut declaims against the war—Convention at Albany—An unwise armistice—Brock's hands tied—Americans improve the opportunity	187
--	-----

CHAPTER XVI.

The Niagara frontier—Capture of the Detroit and the Caledonia —Brock narrowly escapes capture—Americans preparing to cross the Niagara—General Van Rensselaer—Battle of Queenston Heights—Death of Brock—Macdonell mortally wounded—Crushing defeat of the Americans—A dearly-bought victory—John Beverley Robinson—Brock interred at Fort George—The Prince Regent's despatch	203
--	-----

CHAPTER XVII.—(CONCLUDING EVENTS OF THE WAR).

General Smyth's Invasion—A would-be hero—An inglorious retreat—Canadians assume the offensive—Attack on Ogdensburgh—Capture of York—Bombardment of Fort George—Colonel Harvey—Stoney Creek—Beaver Dam—Chrysler's Farm—Burning of Newark—Stern Retaliation—Lundy's Lane—Affair at Cook's Mills—Close of the war	235
--	-----