

PUBLISHER'S NOTE

THESE stories by Mr. Thomson have most of them appeared in the "Youth's Companion" and other journals. Mr. Thomson, as is well known, is one of the editors of the "Youth's Companion" and his stories form a feature of that journal. The former volume from his pen, entitled "Old Man Savarin and Other Stories," has been received with marked favor, and these stories possess all the qualities of adventure, dash, and humor that characterized that. The illustrations, with the exception of the frontispiece, are reproductions of those used in the "Youth's Companion," by the courtesy of whose publishers they appear.