McCormick paid $1,025 for her, $525 in excess of the selling price, which was given to the second horse, Arcturus.

here to allow you $1,000 to cover traveling expenses. The Kentucky Association will add one-half of the gate receipts of that day to the winning horse, and will extend to you a hearty welcome.

(Signed) J. F. ROBINSON, Pres. Kentucky Association.

New York.

To Gen. James F. Robinson, President:

I received your telegram. The Associated Press have mistaken my proposition. I offered and still offer to match Tom Ochiltree the last day of the Baltimore races, or the extra day of the Jerome Park races in November, against Tom Broeck, a four mile dash for $10,000, American Jockey Club rules and new weights. Yours truly, (Signed) G. L. LORILLARD. Please answer by telegraph.

LEXINGTON, Ky.

To Geo. Lorillard:

The race proposed by you is impossible. Ten Broeck is not in training. Should you desire to accept my proposition, or alter its terms to run over the Kentucky Association course, I shall be pleased to hear from you.

(Signed) J. F. ROBINSON.

Since the above telegrams were made public the following was received and printed in the columns of the Herald:

MEMPHIS, TENN., Oct. 18, 1876.

To the Editor of the Herald.

On Sunday last Mr. Harper promised Ten Broeck for a race at Louisville in the spring against Tom Ochiltree. I wrote a challenge to Lorillard last night.

M. LEWIS CLARKE, JR., Pres. Louisville Jockey Club.

GREAT EASTERN vs. SMUGGLER.

MYSTIC PARK, BOSTON, Oct. 16.—The first of the three trots arranged to take place between the celebrated stallion Smuggler and the brown gelding Great Eastern came off at Mystic Park this afternoon in the presence of 3,000 spectators. The track presented a galla appearance, as a large number of those present came in carriages, which lined both sides of the homestretch for a long distance, while the grand stand was full of ladies and gentlemen, glad to escape the cold wind which was blowing. It was not an agreeable day to sit out a horse-race, as the air was full of rost and decidedly keen. The great reputation of Smuggler, and the pluck of Great Eastern were magnets strong enough to draw this large attendance, in spite of all drawbacks. The track was muddy, and could be considered only in fair order, fast time being an impossibility. Pool selling on the match was very active, Smuggler being a warm favorite at $100 to 40, and after the stallion had landed the first heat safely, much larger odds were freely offered, with only a few venture some takers. Much enthusiasm was shown as the two rivals trotted up the stretch. All eyes noted their every movement as they skinned along in their warming-up exercise. But few present imagined it possible for the stallion to be defeated, and all in their mind accepted it as a foregone conclusion that the gate money for which the pair contended was as good as locked up in Smuggler's strong box before they started. A more sudden smash-up of those who played with the long end of the betting wire is seldom experienced than befel them when the flag fell in the second heat shutting the favorite out.

would be the victor. A party named John Parks called upon both wr. sires and offered to put up $2,400 on Baurer, with the understanding that he should win, and that the 2,400 would be divided in three equal parts. One of the wr. sires agreed and the other was about to do so, when a gentleman who learned of the intended fraud, said he would have them driven out of the city if found at any crooked work. This only had the effect of making Parks bet heavier on Baurer. The rest of Baurer's backers found this out on Saturday, and also that Miller's backers were taking these bets. Knowing how those wrestling matches are worked, and seeing Parks was a goose to be plucked, they began to hedge their bets and began betting on Miller. Of course Miller won, and Parks, who bet his last cent on Baurer, is out about $700.

Billiards.

BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.

Mr. James Phelan, the champion billiard player of Hamilton and the proprietor of the Queen's Restaurant Billiard Parlors, has arranged for a grand tournament to take place at his rooms early in November. Nearly all the leading players in the Dominion have promised to take part in the contest. The prizes are $50 for 1st, $30 for 2nd, and $20 for 3rd. Entrance, 10 each. Full particulars will appear shortly.

RE-OPENING OF THE DION BROS. ROOMS.

A few evenings since, the brothers Joseph and Cyrille Dion, having renovated their pleasant billiard parlor on Broadway, just above Thirty-fifth Street, New York, had a grand reopening, which was attended by throngs of their friends. All present were full of enthusiasm, and caused the brothers to feel that they were fortunate indeed in the strong position they had gained in the appreciation of those who love the game of billiards. Joseph played an exhibition game with Kavanagh, in which Dion showed that he is in fine form, and in full play for the contest he will soon be called upon to enter into with Garnier. Izar and Daly then had a merry tilt with the fingers, Daly leading off with 41, when Izar went in and ran the game out with 200 points, and as many more apparently at his mercy when he stopped. Izar then exhibited his fancy shots. All in all, the evening was as pleasant a one for billiardists as has occurred this fall, and the Dion brothers are now fairly launched upon what promises to be their most successful season.

Football.

CARLTON CRICKET CLUB vs. TORONTO LACROSSE CLUB.

On Saturday afternoon teams of the above clubs played a keenly contested game on the grounds of the Carlton on Winchester street. A large number of spectators favored the game with their presence, among whom was quite a sprinkling of Indians. The game was played under English Association Rules, and after a hot contest of about two hours' duration, resulted in a draw.

ARGONAUTS, OF TORONTO, vs. HAMILTON.

On Saturday the Argonauts visited Hamilton and had a lively tussle with the players of the Ambitious City. The result of the game appears to be in doubt, but the Hamilton papers credit the victory to their players, while the Argonauts claim that they, the A's, obtained a goal during the first twenty minutes of the game. The Hamilton team were lighter in avordupois, but were the speedier. A strong wind prevailed throughout the afternoon.
