

SUNDAY SCHOOL GUARDIAN.

"ALL THY CHILDREN SHALL BE TAUGHT OF THE LORD."

VOL. VI.

TORONTO, C. W., OCT., 1851.

No. 5.

WORTHY OF IMITATION,

We give the following extract from a letter received, to show our friends what may be done by a little effort, and how the circulation of the S. S. Guardian may be greatly increased. Let each one who reads it, go and do likewise, and we shall soon hear of the results.

BEVERLY, Oct. 8, 1851.

To the Editor of the S. S. Guardian.

Sir,—A short time ago, I was in Nelson, and happened to be in a house where I saw a No. of the S. S. Guardian. I took it up, looked it over, and was well pleased with it. I brought it home with me, and was resolved to try to get subscribers here, and I have succeeded in getting ten. I have enclosed two dollars, which, I believe, is the price of ten numbers for one year, which I wish you to send me.

WALLACE McDONALD.

Now, it was right, in the first place, that the S. S. Guardian should be in the house where that visitor happened to be; and as an illustration of the happy influence of the law of association, that one paper was the means of gaining ten other papers beside it. Will not some others take the hint, and send for the paper, and perhaps others may become the first in the series of a multiplying ratio?

From the New York Observer.

TWO YEARS IN HEAVEN.

Two years ago to-day he went to heaven.

With us they have been long, long years, since we heard the sound of his sweet voice.

He was the youngest of our flock. Three summers he had been with us, and O, he was brighter and sunnier than any summer day of them all. But he died as the third year of his life was closing. The others were older than he, and all we had of childhood's glee and gladness
