

was commenced, and continued at the rate of two to four pages per month. Both Histories are complete in the numbers of 1894, to 1896.

But as it is nearly impossible for the Indians to find their way in the successive numbers of the Wawa, where pages of both Testaments are found intermingled; it is necessary to make a special edition of the Bible History. It is now under press and will be ready in a few weeks.
