EVERY NEED SUPPLIED BY GOD.

NEW YEAR SERMON.

By REV. JOHN MACDOUGALL, B.A., Beechridge, Que.

"My God shall supply all your need."—Phil. iv. 17.

We pass by the magnificent context. Were we to linger we should find Paul passing through an experience of need which, though borne with such magnanimity of spirit as to win absolute supremacy over circumstances, was yet so deep as to seem to fill' up that which was lacking of the afflictions of Christ; we should find his converts, urged by a motive stronger than the tie of blood, holier than the bond of love, following his course with gifts to relieve his need, until his heart, penetrated to its depths by the Spirit of Christ, sees in their care for him a service to Christ, which God in faithfulness will reward.
