

Catholic Church," and yet in their "new and advanced position" they declared that the title of "Reformed Catholic" as applied to our Church is simply abominable,— "Protestant Episcopal" must be its name. No wonder these folks wish to have the Prayer-Book revised.

The Tyng trial excites much interest, and is beginning to be better understood. Rev. Steph. Tyng, jr., is called to account—not for preaching in a Methodist place of worship, for this is a thing of frequent occurrence in the States when the Church first appears in a new district—but because he officiated in the parish of another clergyman not only without his leave, but in the face of his prohibition. This is a direct violation of one of the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church, a Canon which was once brought to bear by the father of the present defendant, against a brother clergyman who officiated in his parish without his permission.

Correspondence.

RIVER JOHN, Feby. 20th, 1868.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CHURCH CHRONICLE.

Sir.—Will you please give publicity to the accompanying letter, which I recently received from the Rev Charles Elliott of England, by inserting it in the next issue of your valuable paper? The substantial proof which the Rev Gentleman gives of the deep interest he feels in this part of the field of his former labours will be gratifying to the members of the Church.

It may be necessary to explain that the parsonage for which the Rev. Gentleman has sent so handsome a donation is not being built, neither is it probable that the building of it will be undertaken for several years. But the money which he has so kindly sent will be added to a small sum already set aside for that purpose.

BEAUFORD BUILDING,

Gloucester, Jan'y. 31st, 1868.

My Dear Sir.—I send you by the present steamer £15 which together with £10 forwarded some time ago will make one hundred dollars towards the erection of a parsonage house in the mission of River John. Of this sum $20 have been given by my friends, the balance is from myself. This I have done at some little personal sacrifice, but I have felt that your mission has peculiar claims arising from two causes. It was the sphere of my most arduous labours, while I consider that the maintenance of our Church in that quarter will for some time demand extraneous help, and more than any other section of the Province is entitled to my consideration.

I am

yours faithfully,

(Signed)

CHARLES ELLIOTT.

DIOCESAN SYNOD.

At the Session of 1866 the following Resolution was passed.

"That the increasing responsibilities devolved upon this Synod demand that every section of this Diocese should be as fully represented as possible, and that the Executive Committee be instructed to prepare an estimate of the amount required to meet the wants of its next session, including unavoidable expenses of members non-resident in this city, and that the same be requested from the several Parishes or Congrega-
