GALT COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

This old established institution, conducted so successfully by Dr. Tassie for so many years, will re-open on Thursday, Sept. 14th, under its new management, it will endeavour to maintain, and, if possible, surpass the reputation for excellence which it has so long possessed.

Competent and experienced teachers have been engaged, and it is the intention of the Board of Trustees to make the School in every respect the equal of the best educational institutions of the country.

The Institute is beautifully situated on the bank of the Grand River, and possesses an ample cricket ground, and the best facilities for boating. There is also a large and well furnished gymnasium.

Boarding houses have been established, in which those pupils whose parents desire for them the supervision of the Principal, may board at reasonable rates. Young men and young women attending the Institute, may secure board in private families for $3 a week and upwards.

For full information, and for the Institute Circular, apply to JOHN E. BRYANT, M.A., Principal.
