Sparkles.

A FAMOUS surgeon told us that he went once to see a lunatic in a private asylum, and that, in passing through a corridor, he was thus accosted by one of the patients: Take off your hat, sir. "Why should I?" asked my friend. "Because I am the son of the Emperor of the French." "Oh, I beg your Royal Highness' pardon," apologized my friend, taking his hat off. On re-visiting the asylum a month or so later, he was again accosted in the same corridor by the son of the Emperor of the French, and in the same words: Take off your hat, sir. "Why?" again asked my friend. "Because I am the son of the Emperor of Germany." "Of the Emperor of Germany? Surely, when last I had the honor to see your Royal Highness, you were the son of the Emperor of the French." "Ah, well, yes," he stammered. But, recovering at once from his embarrassment, he added brightly: "That was by another mother."

AFTER suffering for three weeks from cholera infantum, so that I was not expected to live, and at the time would even have been glad had death called upon me, so great was my suffering, a friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which acted like magic on my system. But for this medicine I would not be alive now. —JOHN W. BRADSHAW, 393 St. Paul Street, Montreal, P.Q.

LIFE is a journey, and he who has least of a burden to carry travels the fastest and most happily. —Channing.

GENTLEMEN,—I have been ill for a long time with lame back and weak kidneys, and at times could not get up without help. I tried B.B.B., and with two bottles am almost well. I find my back is stronger every day. Yours truly, MRS. L. THOMPSON, Oakville, Ont.

It is only through some faults and mistakes that most of us rise to our best and final character.—Mrs. Whitney.

DEAR SIR,—For several years my sister suffered from liver complaint. As doctors gave her no help we tried B.B.B., which cured her completely. I can recommend it to all. MISS MAUD GRAHAM, Lyons, Ont.

WHICH I wonder, . . . is the better lot, to die prosperous and famous, or poor and disappointed? To have, and to be forced to yield; or to sink out of life, having played and lost the game.—Thackeray.

RIGHT actions spring from right principles. In cases of diarrhoea, dysentery, cramps, colic, summer complaint, cholera morbus, etc., the right remedy is Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry—an unfailing cure—made on the principle that nature's remedies are best. Never travel without it.

THERE are many women who have never intrigued, and many men who have never gamed; but those who have done either but once are very extraordinary animals. —Colton.

GENTLEMEN,—I was suddenly prostrated while at work by a severe attack of cholera morbus. We sent at once for a doctor, but he seemed unable to help. An evacuation about every forty minutes was fast wearing me out, when we sent for a bottle of Wild Strawberry, which saved my life. MRS. J. N. VAN NATTER, Mount Brydges, Ont.

A FRIEND of ours, then living in Racine, ordered, with other books, from G. & Co., of Chicago, a copy of Canon Farrar's "Seekers after God," just then out. In a short time the other volumes came to hand, but, being out of Canon's book, G. & Co. wrote at the bottom of the invoice: "No seekers after God in Chicago."

DEAR SIR,—I have used your B.B.B. for the past five or six years, and find it the best cure for sour stomach and biliousness. I have also used Burdock Pills, and can recommend them highly. AMANDA FORTUNE, Huntingdon, Que.
