Examined and found correct, R. W. H.

On the motion of Sir William Dawson, it was resolved that a sub-committee on Ways and Means be appointed, consisting of the Chairman, Dr. Heneker, the Very Rev. Dean Norman, Dr. Hemming and Dr. Cameron.

REPORTS.

1. The Secretary submitted a report of the Teachers' Institutes held during the second and third weeks of July last for the information of the Committee. The report was received.

2. The Secretary submitted the following report concerning the first examination under the Protestant Central Board of Examiners, which was received and laid on the table:—

The first examination for candidates for teachers' diplomas, under the Central Board of Examiners, was held during the first week in July last.

In making arrangements for the first examination it was to be expected that unforeseen difficulties would arise which can be provided for in subsequent examinations. Of these I need mention only two or three. It was found that the number of candidates that presented themselves at Sweetsburg was so large that it was impossible to secure any one room sufficiently large to accommodate them. It was necessary, therefore, to provide a second deputy-examiner at Sweetsburg, Mr. J. D. Bulman, the Secretary of the late Local Board of Sweetsburg, to take charge of a number of the candidates in a second room.

At Portage du Fort, in the County of Pontiac, there is no railroad communication, and I was obliged to express the parcel for that centre to a point in Ontario, and then by stage to Portage du Fort. Many of the
