Kingston Business College

is recommended by the Bishop and Clergy, bend f r Catalogue. J. B. MACKAY, K.B.C., Kingston, Ont,

The Catholic Register

"Truth is Catholio; proclaim it over, and God will effect the rest .-- BALMEZ.

TORONTO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1902

SMOKERS

Ray Panyong Suores Muture, posttitely ocol and fragrant, to nevte per

ALIVE BOLLARD,

199 Yonge Street, . TORONTO.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

VOL. X. No. 46

FAREWELL TO

Ottawa Hibernians and Knights of Columbus and present from a distance, including Mr. Thomas Mulvey, of Toronto. The Toronto Clergy and Laymen Express the High Respect Entertained Towards the Apos- Oriental topazes and diamonds. Of tolic Delegate by the Catholics of Canada-Sperchog. at the Toronto Banquet of callers anxious to pay their re-duced to His Excellency. parture for Washington. The Prime Minister called upon the Papal Delo- Ottawa, Nov. 17.—In the handsome tunities to ameliorate their condition, both in a spiritual and materfore coming to Canada he had no very clear idea of what the Domin- lon was like. He knew that it was a vast country, with large rivers, numerous lakes and beautiful scentility and blessed with specific graves and beautiful scentility and blessed with specific graves. The three years I have the control of the province, for might be said, of the Province, for leading men from many towns and cities greeted, one another during the long wait.

THE TOASTS BEGUN. numerous lakes and beautiful scen-ery, but after he had visited the had the pleasure to spend amongst "Indeed, I must say," observed the nationality. This is truly a Christian andto the employers of labor. Papal Delegate, "that in the physi- brothernood bound together by the The toast of "The King,"

$175 to $250

The Dineen Fur Garments have held the trade mark of excellence in Canada for thirty-eight Selected skins made up by experts on the premiises. Fit, finish and material guaranteed.

Write Mail Order Department.

W. & D. DINEEN Co.

Inights, and when the occasion should Ottawa, Nov. 16:—Monseignor Fal- cal features of your country and in ed by twenty cut diamonds in close confo, whose urbanity and tact and civic virties." All those in the setting. The cross and chain are of have rendered him a great favorite in Ottawa, received to-day a host gate at 4 o'clock and said farewell hall of the Knights of Columbus this to the distinguished ecclesiastic, Lat- Gening, in the presence of a large A Great Success-A Brilliant Gainer in the afternoon Mgr. Falconio, gathering of the leading Catholic laaccompanied by Archbishop Duhamel, dies and gentlemen in Ottawa, and proceeded to St. Patrick's Hall, of many of the clergy, a gorgeously on Tuesday evening with Mgr. Fal-where a farewell address was prowhere a farewell address was pro-illuminated address and a magnificent met by Archbishop O'Connor, Mr. sented to him by the Ancient Order gold pectoral cross were presented to Justice McMahon, Bishop McEvay, of Hibernians. In reply Mgr. Fai- Monsignor Falcono by the Canadian Vicar-General McCann and others, conic spoke in felicitious terms of Councils of the Order. His Excellency who accompanied him to McConkey!

their unshaken attachment to the leading Knights present The address of the clergy and laity of Toronto Holy See. He said the names of the was lead by Mr. J. P. Dunne, State and to a certain extent of Ontarlo. distinguished men and exemplary Christians who from the days of old had adorned Ireland, with noble deeds were well known to the readers of say: "We heartily congratulate Your level and the guest table being the process of the union, occupied the chair, the others at the guest table being the level and the process of the Union, occupied the chair, the others at the guest table being the level and the process of the Union, occupied the chair, the other and the guest table being the level and the process at the guest table being the level and the process at the guest table being the level and the process at the guest table being the level and the process at the guest table being the level and the process at the guest table being the level and the process at the guest table being the level and the process at the guest table being the level and the process at the guest table being the guest table the process at the guest table being the guest table the process at the guest table table the guest table history. Ireland, therefore, had a Excellency on your well-earned pro- Excellency Monsigor Diomede Fal-

HIS EXCELLENCY'S REPLY, wood; Mr. Eugene O'Keele, Vicar-In reply His Excellency expressed General McCann, Mr. J. F. White, ial sense. Indeed, although Canada his good wishes for the welfare of Mr. H. T. Kelly and Schator Me was a young country, she could come the Order of the Kuights of Colum- Hugh, of Lindsay. The gentlemen at pare advantageously with the most bus, and bestowed his blessing upon the other tables represented the advanced nations of the world. Be it. Continuing, he said. "Gentlemen, Catholicism of Toronto, and, it most important points in the Dominion he realized its vast proportions and great resources. However, the extent of territory with its beauty and refeness, would not have imand refeness, would not have imand great resources, which can surpass yours

At 10.30 o'clock Judge McMabon that the church was so strong in had to go to the diocese of London measure the respective responsibility have joined with you," Mayor Howrose to propose the toast of the diocese of London Holy Pontiff, Pope Leo XIII." "The Pope had given him a higher posiof denominations. What inspires us, land said, "in drinking the toast of the Holiness, a friend of the liftlish how more powerful, and how richer celfed from the Catholics of this Dolimits three years' residence here he infinent and unlimited supply on hand race or creed, we shall all be one had the pleasure to spend amongst that the country, nor do we have in the diocese of London measure the respective responsibility have joined with you," Mayor Howmeasure the respective responsibility have joined with you, "Mayor Howmeasure the respective responsibility have joined with you," Mayor Howmeasure the respective responsibility have joined with you, "Mayor Howmeasure the respective responsibility have joined with you," Mayor Howmeasure the respective responsibility have joined with you, "Mayor Howmeasure the respective responsibility have joined with you," Mayor Howmeasure the respective responsibility and said, "in drinking the toast of the north the difference in the country, nor do we have joined with you," Mayor Howmeasure the respective responsibility and said, "in drinking the toast of the life data to go to the diocese of London measure the respective responsibility and said, "in drinking the toast of the life data to go to the diocese of London measure the respective responsibility and said, "in drinking the respective responsibility and said, "in drinking the respective responsibility and measure the respective responsibility and said, "in drinking th pressed his mind so strongly had in the equanimity of your character during his pontificate, a support any other country. While he admirgreat hopes for this country on that secreting whatever ability God has need in the nobility of your heart and in that had been received from 350 ed the extent of our land, its proaccount." Bishop McEvay concluded given us to make Canada as great lowed by the toast of His Majesty the Kine. I think it would have been ents in the moral and civic virtues of the practise of Christian virtues, million Catholics throughout the ductiveness and its beauty, he ad by thanking Mgr. Falconic for the and prosperous as we can. We need, the people The Institutions of char- By means of your society, as far as world. He had received also the colleges and schools. the total volume and schools. The list to the colleges and schools at the list to the colleges and schools. The list to the colleges and schools at the list to the colleges and schools. The list to the colleges and schools at the list to the colleges and schools. ity, the colleges and schools, the it is in your power, endeavor to imspect of the world for his wisdom inated the Canadians. Although of from His Excellency during his stay religious duty, that is our first duty. magnificent churches and the constitution by which they were governed amply demonstrated the moral and character. It pleases me to see enhis advice had been asked it had toship together, and the country was in the important district and country can be great

The state of religious character of Canadians, rolled under your dag people of every suited in benefit to the working men going on its way with its people try and office which the Holy Father the character of its people there is sacred ties of religion and patriots proposed by Judge MacMahon, something which elevates the mind ism. Here you need this quanimity of and makes us feel that a great fu-ture is before the country blessed by beloved country and for the sake of God in so many different ways. En- that peace and fraternal love which deavor to preserve and increase these are the true distinctive characteris- briefly. In proposing it His Lordship blessings by means of your religious ties of Christian souls. For such un- said that the attendance of the hier- appreciation of your love for the was wanting any demonstration of virtue and-good-will among all races ion Christ our Divine Lord prayed, archy and the number of the clergy church and for our Holy Zatter the that fact, it was to be found in the and creeds, and when you have done > of the church for works of ieneficence wished him every success in his new er forget Canada; you shall always and charity. By such union you beget mission. strength, and your institution will MGR. FALCONIO REGRETS LEAVbe able to accomplish very much good. Remember that the apostolate of the faity is not a novelty in the church. It has existed in all times since the first days of Christianity Therefore endeavor by your powerful union to promote harmony among your fellow-men, to encourage more and more religious sentiments and the spirit of mutual beneficence and Christian charity, and your association; will become a valuable and useapostolate in the Church of Christ. To the address you have been pleased to add a souvenir, It is the sign of our redemption. I cannot refuse it. It shall remain on my breast as a remembrance of your attachment to our holy religion and of my everlasting gratitude towards you." (Loud applause.)

His Excellency then spoke in French for c Jew minutes, and thank- Ellis' Certificate and two World's ed the Archbishop of Ottawa, Vicar- | Pab Gold Medals. General Poutler and the clergy and people for the good feeling they had shown towards him.

ARCHBISHOP DUHAMEL. His Grace Archbishop Duhamol, who was loudly called for, delivered brief address. He said the church demand it they would know how to MGR. FALCONIO prove their faith. Mgr. Falconio bestowed the Papal boundletion upon the company, after which those preent were averally introduced to the two prelates and kissed their rings. Several knights of the order were pectoral cross presented to His Excellency is of solid gold, beautifully chased in shamrocks and mounted in the former stone there are five exquisite specimens, one each at the top and bottom of the tree of the cross, and one in each arm, besides at all times needed true Catholic a larger one in the centre, surroundcovered with cardinal plush and linspects to him on the evo of his de- KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MAKE PRESENTA- ed with purple satin, the cross resting on an oval-shaped raised centre

TORONTO'S FAREWELL BANQUET

ering and Excellent Speeches.

On the arrival of the Ottawa train the profound sentiment of religion and patriotism which had always characterized the Irish race, and the Archief was accompanied by Archbishop Durestaurant, where a banquet under the auspices of the Catholic Union this secretary, Rev. Father Schafer, was waiting. Two hundred and fifty the Irish race, and then, F. R. Latchford was among the guests were assembled representative

IN THESE

COOD TIMES

are goos, are you sering to he's provision for "the mainy day?" here, sty depositing a percenture of your income to the only one method. Don't wait to accumulate a "loued sum with which to opin an account. We receive sum of one dollar and upwards and allow interest thereos. By systematically

Canada Permanent

Western Canada

MONTGAGE CORPORATION

TORONTO STREET, TORONTO

adding to it the account will grow. Interest history. Ireland, therefore, had a right to the love and esteem of the church. He spoke of the true liberty which was enjoyed in Canada, and said that perhaps no other country in the world afforded better opportunities to amplicate their condi-

n surpass yours sulplon a loyal and undivided support had learned to love Canada above all the time, and, therefore, I have in directing our energies and in con-

"God Save the King." The toast of "Our Guest" was pro-

ING CANADA.

His Excellency was received with great cordiality. He returned his best thanks for the demonstration of attachment to the Holy Father. It was a proof of their loyalty to the

fretant

choicest blessing."

Channon Latter File

for all the Canadians during all my life, and I hope that God will hear

GOOD WISHES FROM LONDON:

MacMahon referred to the disadvant-

In proposing the hierarchy, Judge holds your papers on the arch in a compact and orderoutpact and orderly manner. Xcu ona refer to any paper without removing it from the file; Papers cannot get utalaid or lest, cace they are on

Complete File $1 Board and Arch only 50a.

Send for Catalogue,

ages under which the labors of the hierarchy are sometines performed. The church owed them a deep debt boasted as a Londoner that the prolove for Toronto, had sent us two church, it was a satisfaction to know

MOR. PALCONIO.

bound by brotherly love and sure to had entrusted to him. prosper. "I hope," he said, "that the Judge MacMahon also proposed the foundation being well laid and truly was blessing of God will always be upon toast of "Canada, Our Country," laid, then prosperity will follow as a honored by the hearty singing of you, and, although away from you, and in doing so, said that Canada river flows to the boundless see I shall never forget the kindness I possessed as contented, as prosperous Canada's effort to lay that foundahave received here in Canada, and I and as happy a people as there was tion is supported by a well-directed beg leave this evening to return my on the face of one earth. It was a and tolerant clergy, filled with a debest thanks for it and to express my land of great promise, and lithere sire to propagate these principles of and prayed fervently. His Divine and latty present testified to the ess Pope. I beg to return my thanks for request that was made only a few that you have done the most sub-words before His passion and death teem in which His Excellency was the kindness of the clergy of Canada days ago, and acceded to by the stantial tervice you can to a countries that the stantial tervice is and of all those sentiment whom I Drovings of Option that 20 000 in the Blanda with all races and cannot easily be forgotten. 'Holy held. The mere fact of His Excel- and of all those gentlemen whom I Province of Ontario, that 20,000 in try like Canada, with all races and Father, said He, 'keep them in My lency being trusted with so import have had the pleasure to know. It habitants of the United States creeds. Those of is who are not of name whom Thou hast given Me, and a mission by His Holiness the has been a gladness to me to have shou'd take possession of a few mil- His Excellency's faith not only wish that they may be one as We also Pope showed the esteem in which by harthe pleasure in witting to the lion acres of our waste territory, aim abundant prosperity in the fand These words of our Lord, was held at the Vatican. It was on- Holy Father to tell him he had here That has been acceded to, he was he is going to, but we will always though addressed to the whole hu- lynatural that he was chosen to fill in Canada some children that per- sure, with some reluctance by the remember his kindly feeling towards man family, are applicable in a partite important position vacant at haps were not equalled anywhere in Premier of this Province. One would the people of Canada, and we know ticular manner to these fraternities Washington, and while regretting his the world. The telere, while I bid you imbigine, and properly imagine, that he will ever be able to say to which spring up amongst the children departure, the Catholics of Ontario good-bye, remember that I shall nev- there was a deep-laid scheme on his the people to the south of us, if part to annex the remainder of the they ever feel any resentment tobe present in my mind. I shall pray United States to the Dominion of ward us, that the Canadians are a Canada as soon as opportunity al- people not to be despised, but a peoforden. (Laughter and applause.) He ple worthy of their attention and my prayers and bestow upon you His hoped reached Washington he would not able to strengthen that bond of almake a disclosure of the Premier's fection that should prevail among us years! Just the change that took responsibility in that respect and place with everyone who became acquainted with our Dominion. There was not a citizen of Canada but would appreciate Mgr. Falconio's high encomiums on Canada as they appreciated them at the linner. "I of gratitude for the work which they words to-night show that he came Holiness Canada had done something had performed. The toast was re- here hearing that message, that he to educate the world. She had taught sponded to by His Lordship the Bish- was a, worthy messenger, and we the British Empire to understand the op of London. Bishop McEvay echoed feel that he has discharged that duty idea of a united empire, and even Judge MacMahon's regret that Mgr. to the whole of the people of Can- Monsigner Falconfo, coming from the Falconio was about to sever his con- ada, not merely to the people of his most ancient of capital cities, from nection with Canada. His Lordship own church, to whom his message expressed the belief that in the whole was primarily to be delivered, but church there was not at the pres- to all those who bear the name Canent time a more faithful, patient and adian, and who are interested, as he spending some time in Canadit. had virtuous clergy and a more generous is interested, in the peace and prosand loyal laity than we had in the perity of our beloved Dominion. We education, (Laughter.) As representfree and prosperous country. He who are not of his church realize ing the City of Toronto, he was glad that at least two-fillis of the popuple of that diocese, to show their lation of Canada belong to the Rofirst-class Archbishops to look after that population is concerned in the to so distinguished a representative us, and he did not need to say that prosperity of the country as much as as His Excellency. He acknowledged they had plenty of work to do when we are. We do not measure the dethe indebtedness of modern civilizathey got here. He also boasted that grees of presperity or the extent in when the Province wanted a good which religious denominations are for its preservation of learning and

vince.12 (Laughter )

PREMIER ROSS' REIPLY.

umess its institutions are based upon morality and virtue, and that that when Mgr. Falconio worthy of their exteem, and will be intentions to the President of the as sons of a common Rither, advanc-United States or to any of his Cabl- ing the cause of Christianity, It is hard to tell what influence His Ex-

> PROMOTION OF EDUCATION. Mr. Ross said that he was glad to be able to pear testimony to the zeal of the Roman Catholic clergyas he had found them in the various positions he had occupied in the last low years—in promoting the great in terests of education in this Province of Ontario. In revising the currieu lum of studies for the improvement of separate schools nothing prouid have been accomplished had it not been for the cordial support received from the diergy. If it was suggested that trained teachers were required or that ite standing of the profession abould be raised they said raise the standard 'as last as the 'olrcumstances will allow, and in no incellency may have in maintaining peace and amity, knowing the two peoples as he will in a very short net If that were done, it might stance had there been delay. Where cause the pleasant relations between he suggested an improvement in the Great Britain and the United text books, at once they placed at-States to become somewhat strains has disposal a series of readers that ed. (Laughter.) "But it you should sould compare favorably with the by and chance meet Archbishop best in the world Whatever the subircland in Washington-(laughter) - ject, whether improved inspection, you may say to him that he has systematic study, or higher qualificabeen forestalled, that the annexation tion of teachers, he had always aswhich he prophested is to take place Minister of Education had their sup-in another way. The matter has been port. "I was proud to be able too arranged between those who wish to say," the Premier added, "that where become citizens of the Dominion of I left the Education Department the Canada and the Premier of this Pro- separate school system had reached as high a plane in a general way as the public school system, that had had a far better chance, and that The Hon. Geo. W. Ross was re- was always owing to the cordial supceived with great cheering. He said port I received from the church." that he carso from the Diocese of Mr Ross spoke of the prominent pohis chief introduction to a Toronto Roman Catholics, mentioning the audience, and he was proud of it. He names of Judge MacMalion and Sir was proud to have over him a pre- Wilfrid Laurier as striking examples. late who appreciated as fully as "We must leave to our successors or Bishop McEvay did the members of land of freedom, of tolerant spirit, his diocese. He was delighted to be of a high-minded, intelligent clergy, present as one of the citizens of To- a land where the leven was held ronto to do his humble share in the sacred and where every position of reception of His Excellency Mgr. trust was filled by men worthy 'of Falconio. When he first met His Ex- the country they belonged to, and cellency three years ago he did not of the obligation they had assumed.

seem to be as much at home as he The future of Canada is hright bowas to-night; he seemed a little lone-youd all comparison." he said, in ly away from sunny Italy. What a conclusion. "We are a great people change had taken place in three now in many respects; let us feel the

let us live up to its obligations." THE MAYOR'S SPEECH. The toast of the "Corporation of the City of Toronto" was replied to by Mayor Howland and the Archunderstand His Excellency came to blahop of Toronto. Mayor Howland this country," Mr. Ross continued, expressed his pleasure in attending "bearing a message of peace and the gathering in honor of His Excelgood-will to Canada; he has com- leney, who had been for some time in pletely fulfilled that duty. His kind Canada as a representative of His the centre of the church which was the nexus of Oristianity and civilization during the dark ages, and done something to accomplish his to be present to express the cordial welcome which he was sure the citiman Catholic Church. We realize that zens, irrespective of creed, would give Premier to look after the country it interested in the country, nor do we religion through the dark ages. At 10.30 o'clock Judge McMabon that the church was so strong in had to go to the diocese of London measure the respective responsibility have joined with you," Mayor Howchurch and State had not thus been expressed in this city and under the British flag. I could not refuse to join following that in drinking the toaut of His Most Gracious Majesty; I am sure every Roman Catholia present joined most heartily and loyally in the toast, and I know you meant nothing more than the expression of the sentiment in which I do not think I could refuse to join your that the spiritual is higher than the material. I regret that sometimes the form of expression of a sentiment differs from the essence of the senti-

(Continued on page 5.)

Bud · Vases

We illustrate here a Bud Vase which for table decoration has proven very popular.

No. 240—Falt Height Tinches The Vavo is of cut glass, with beaded edge top of Sterling Silver. These we sell at $1.50 each, either singly, or lu setwor four

Ryrie Bros., Corner Yours and Adelaids Str Toronto, S

ALONZO W. SPOONER The Office Specialty Mfg. Co. Limited '77 MAY-STREET, TORONTO, CANADA Fuotorios: 🍇 🗸

YE OLD FIRM OF NEIHTZMAN & CO.

Oanada's Favorite Plano

Anyone who has attended the Imany great musical concerns given by world-finned artists visiting Toronto and cities in Canada will be impressed with the fact that to all these occasions a plano of this old-established and well-known plano arm was used. -It has been endorsed and enlegised -by lending musicians both for sign -and those at home.

HEINTZMAN & 115-117 King St. W., Toronta