of $700 for Foreign Missions, including St. Stephon, St. John, $20; Dartmouth half year, $50; Fort Massey half year, $50; Fort Massey half year, $103; Meitland, $70; United Church, Now Glasgow, $317; A. G., Picton, besides other denations, $20; Cymro, New Glasgow, $25, Retired business man, Hants, $50, with $100 for Supplement fund. Reep it up friends, at this rate, and all will end well yet, With a few more Cymros' and A. G's., and Retired Business men, and Hants Presbyterians, and large hearted congregations, we may yet end the year, and owe no man anything.

The new Presbyterian church, Amherat was opened on Sabbath Feb. 11th. Services were conducted by Revs. W. S. Darragh, Dr. Burns, and T. Sedgewick. The new church is very neat and commodious, and is nearly all paid for. The congregation is going forward with zeal and liberality, and having just secured the services of Rev.D. McGregor of Merigomish, has bright prospects before it.

Tuesday, March 6th, was a black letter day in the history of Pictou Presbytery. Two of its ministers accepted calls, Rev. D. McGregor to Amherst, and Rev. T. Cumming to St Josoph St. Church, Montreal.

Rev. H. A. Robertson, who has been labouring for eleven years on "blood stained" Erromanga, and reaping the fruit watered by the blood of our martyred missionaries will ere long be among us to tell of what God is doing for that dark land.

Rev. Malcolm Campbell of Strath Lorne, C. B. wishes to acknowledge with thanks the kindness of those who this winter, again, provided, hauled and cut a supply of fuel for the manse.
