THE WEEK

A Canadian Journal of Politics, Literature, Science and Art

THE WEEK, now in its Seventh year of publication, has been greatly enlarged and improved, rendering it still more worthy the cordial support of every one interested in the maintenance of a first-class literary journal. Recognizing with gratitude the generous support it has received since the publication of the first number, it hopes to win the approval of a wider constituency and reach a much larger circle of readers.

The independence in politics and criticism which has characterized THE WEEK ever since its first issue will be rigidly maintained; and unceasing efforts will be made to improve its literary character and increase its value and attractiveness as a journal for the cultured home. Many new and able writers are now, or have promised to become, contributors to its columns, and the constant aim of the Publisher will be to make THE WEEK fully equal to the best literary journals in Britain and the United States.

As heretofore, London, Paris, Washington and Montreal Letters from accomplished correspondents will appear at regular intervals.

THE WEEK enlarged is the same size as "Harper's Weekly," and the largest paper of its class on the continent.
