"The Index threatens to be a serious rival of The Nation, or rather to supersede it altogether, now that the latter paper is only the annex of the Post. It has had a life of four years already, and measures are now being taken to secure for it the larger circulation of which it is well worthy."—The Examiner, New York.

"I am very much pleased with the Index. You have struck a note of dignity, earnestness, fairness, and cleanness, that places your paper above all American educational journals known to me. The sobriety of your style, and your unvarying freedom from sensationalism are very refreshing to one who wanders somewhat weary in the weed-grown fields of school literature."—Principal Samuel Thurber, A.M., Boston.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE FORTNIGHTLY INDEX OF LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND THE ARTS,

An Independent Journal of Liberal Education, under the editorial direction of Alexander Winchell, Charles K. Adams, and William H. Payne, professors in the University of Michigan, and Charles H. J. Douglas, instructor in the University of Wisconsin.

*27 The Index occupies its own peculiar field in education, supplementing and completing the work of the best State educational journals, and serving, in a broad sense, the general cause of liberal education throughout the country. It discusses in a scholarly way a wide range of educational themes of vital importance to every intelligent thinker and member of society. Its field is broad, but its aim is definite. Its spirit is catholic, but its convictions are decided.

*27 The Index is of great value to scientific readers on account of the widely varying lines of work of its scientific contributors, and the consequent catholicity of its tone. Among well-known scientists that have recently contributed to its pages, or are soon to do so, are Professors Edward A. Birge, Ph. D., Edward J. James, Ph. D., William Trelease, S.D., Charles A. Van Velsor, A.M., Henry C. Adams, Ph.D., Frederic W. Staebner, George H. French, Henry H. Belfield, Ph.D., John E. Davies, M.D., Charles O. Thompson, Ph.D., G. Stanley Hall, Ph.D., Henry Sewall, Ph.D., Horatio N. Chute, S.M., Herbert B. Adams, Ph.D., Stephen N. Fellows, D.D., William T. Harris, LL.D., and others.

*27 The publishers solicit the subscription of every person interested in the continued success of an independent exponent of liberal culture, of such distinctive breadth and soundness as hitherto have not been characteristic of any American educational journal.

ESTERBROOK STEEL PENS

"The Index has my warmest sympathy. It is doing a grand work for education in this country."—Prof. Herbert B. Adams, Ph.D., Baltimore.
 "The Fortnightly Index continues a well-edited journal of liberal education. Its tone is thoughtful and suggestive, and it is rapidly becoming the recognized medium of communication between the leading thinkers of our country."—Jewish Messenger, New York.
 "One of the most valuable periodicals which comes to us among our exchanges is the Fortnightly Index. It is always thoughtful, candid and scholarly, and deals not only with questions of pure scholarship, but with many of the issues of the day, in a spirit of the highest intelligence."—The Christian Union, New York.

BEGINNING WITH JULY, 1885, THE Magazine of American History

Will publish a series of papers on
The Civil War from all Points of View
Special studies in its History.
 The unrivalled facilities of the Magazine of American History for securing the most acceptable and authoritative data on all questions of a historical character, and through the repeated and urgent solicitations of many persons of eminence and influence, this periodical will commence with the July issue of the present year the publication of a series of WAR STUDIES, prepared by active participants in the stirring scenes described, and by the best of living writers. One-fourth of a century has softened the memories of the great civil conflict, and through the renewal of kindly intercourse between the North and the South our country is now rapidly growing in prosperity, wealth and power. The moment seems to have fully arrived for placing its history from all points of view on permanent record. The study of a contest so memorable for the magnitude of its issues and the sacrifices of blood and treasure it involved, must necessarily be conducted in the genuine historic spirit. The truth, not partisanship, will be represented. The mere description of battles is not so much a part of this important scheme as many other interesting phases of the War, such as its effects upon the people of the different sections of the country, and upon the world's future. Fresh material will surprise and inform our readers from behind the scenes, which do not fall readily into the grasp of the annalist or reciter of adventures. Beginning with the first great uprising through-out the land in 1861, the method and continuity of these War Studies will enable the student of American History to trace the memorable, concrete value hereafter, as contemporaneous evidence for the future historian. These papers will be pertinently illustrated with portraits and also with photographs, and pen-and-ink sketches made at the time, and never before published. The Magazine of American History has been so fortunate as to secure a large number of these negatives and drawings from distinguished sources, which will add immeasurably to the interest and value of the series.

The Fourteenth Volume of The Magazine of American History begins with the number for July, 1885. It is the only magazine in the country devoted exclusively to history and the literature, antiquities and curiosities of history, and conducted in a spirited and popular manner, and it is printed with such care and taste that it is a pleasure to turn its beautiful pages. There are two handsome volumes in each year, beginning with January and July. With each successive volume an elaborate index is carefully prepared and added, enhancing the value of the work, particularly for reference, in a measure that cannot be over-estimated. It forms also a unique gallery of historical portraits. There is no work in existence more absolutely indispensable to the well-chosen library, whether public or private, or more desirable and appropriate for the cultivated home and the study-table. Schools, colleges and libraries have found it a necessity. Subscriptions may begin at any time, and all book-sellers and news-dealers receive them, or remittance may be made direct to the publishers. Price, $5.00 a year. The price of the bound volume is $3.50 for each half year, in dark green levant cloth, and $1.50 if bound in half morocco. This Magazine and the Century will be sent to any one address for a year on receipt of $7.50. Address:—
