

combination destined for or coming from points in the territory of the other Contracting Party, specified in the Annex of the Agreement.

3. Nothing in paragraph 2 of this article shall be deemed to confer on the designated airline of one Contracting Party the privilege of embarking, in the territory of the other Contracting Party, passengers, baggage, cargo and mail carried for remuneration or hire and destined for another point in the territory of that Contracting Party.

4. If because of armed conflict, natural calamities, political disturbances or similar serious disruptive circumstances, the designated airline of one Contracting Party is unable to operate a service on its normal routing, the other Contracting Party shall use its best efforts to facilitate the continued operation of such service through appropriate rearrangements of such routes.

Article 3

1. The designated airline of each Contracting Party shall have fair and equal opportunity to carry on the agreed services traffic embarked in the territory of one Contracting Party and disembarked in the territory of the other Contracting Party or vice versa and shall regard as being of supplementary character traffic embarked or disembarked in the territory of the other Contracting Party to and from points en route. The designated airline of each Contracting Party in providing capacity for the carriage of traffic embarked in the territory of the other Contracting Party and disembarked at points on the specified routes or vice versa shall take into consideration the primary interest of the designated airline of the other Contracting Party in such traffic so as not to affect unduly that interest of the latter airline.
