

2. Article II of the Agreement is superseded in its entirety and the following is substituted therefor:

ARTICLE II

(Grant of Rights)

1. Each Contracting Party grants to the other Contracting Party the following rights for the conduct of international air services by the airline or airlines designated by that other Contracting Party:
 - (a) the right to fly without landing across its territory;
 - (b) the right to land in its territory for non-traffic purposes; and
 - (c) except as otherwise determined in this Agreement, the right to make stops in its territory on the routes specified in this Agreement for the purpose of taking up and discharging international traffic in passengers and cargo, including mail, separately or in combination.
2. The airlines of each Contracting Party operating scheduled services, other than those designated under Article III of this Agreement, shall also enjoy the rights specified in paragraph 1(a) and (b) of this Article.
3. Nothing in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be deemed to confer on a designated airline or airlines of one Contracting Party the right of taking up, in the territory of the other Contracting Party, passengers and cargo, including mail, carried for remuneration or hire and destined for another point in the territory of that other Contracting Party.
