

Hanson, Hon. R. B.—Con.

British children

Arrangements and facilities for extending hospitality for duration of war, 909-12, 1160, 1184, qu. (Mr. Bruce), 1316

Cost of hospitalization of evacuated children in Fredericton homes to be borne by city, 1224

Income tax exemptions for, 1450-57

British North America Act amendment, M. for address to His Majesty (Mr. Lapointe, Quebec East), 1111-16

Brockington, L. W.

Duties as recorder of Canada's war effort and counsellor to war committee of cabinet, 1715-17

Salary and allowances to, 1153, 1256

Brown (customs) commission of 1936, findings of, 494-95

Bruce report in 1916 on Canadian Army Medical Services, 2232-36

Budget, 1247. War of long duration and need for long-term point of view with reference to finance; mobilizing so as to give the maximum of effort to the allied cause; problem of the defence of Canada; marshalling our financial resources to the best advantage and preparing for after-war period, 1248; government policy of pay-as-you-go and short-term borrowings; a reasonably limited amount of inflation necessary; taxation and borrowings on short-term obligations; two sources of necessary funds for war effort; taxation and borrowing; surplus wheat, bacon and agricultural products, 1249; the national income and its effect on the standard of living in Canada; two difficulties in the government's position; halting construction on public buildings; the Montreal terminal, 1250; four good features of the budget: pay as you go, as far as possible; restrictions upon civilian buying; diversion of dollars from United States; avoidance of inflation; the income tax and those who pay it, 1251; doing away with the consumption of spirituous liquors during the war; taxation of gasoline and elimination of exemptions under sales tax, suggested; excess profits tax; conscription of wealth in war time, 1252; corporation income tax; taxing the gold mining and oil producing industries; national defence tax; sacrificial taxation, 1253; reducing the volume of returns required to be made to the government by business concerns; new war exchange tax; preservation of the pegged rate of exchange at its present position, 1254; taxing high-priced motor cars; retrenchment in the ordinary public services of the country as distinguished from war services, 1255; filling of vacancies in public service only when absolutely imperative in the public interest; salary and allowances paid to Mr. Brockington; creation of jobs for defeated Liberal candidates; expediting passing of budget to enable Minister of Finance to take over his duties as Minister of National Defence; giving opportunity to members who have prepared speeches to make them in committee of ways and means, 1256-57

Hanson, Hon. R. B.—Con.

Budget—Con.

Expediting passing of by enabling members to make speeches in committee of ways and means, 1256-57, 1362

Speeches, arrangement to have them made on resolutions, 1426-27

Business of the house

Adjournment

Following ministerial statements, suggested, 2111

Until November 5 on completion, M. (Mr. Mackenzie King), 2398-2401

Amendments

By private members to reduce taxation, 1702

To M. for third reading, 448-51

Dominion day adjournment, 1186

Further legislation, inquiry, 1789-92

Morning sittings, 1892

Motions

Adjournment for, to discuss matters of urgent public importance, 1185-86

Papers on, reference to dropping from order paper of motion of Mr. Castle-den, 532

Order of, agreement as to, 1535

Precedence for government business on and after Wednesday, May 22, M.

(Mr. Mackenzie King), 71

Private members

Motions, 71

Rights of, 75-76

Procedure

Respecting questions passed as orders for returns, 219

With respect to questions asked on the orders of the day, 1570

Questions containing statements of fact, 346

Relevancy of speeches in committee of the whole, 306